1 AN ACT Relating to Washington state history; creating new sections;
2 and making an appropriation.

3 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

4 NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the two 5 hundredth anniversary of the explorations of American, British, and 6 Hispanic voyagers in the Northeast Pacific, especially the new-found
7 Euro-American awareness of the Columbia river and Puget Sound in 1792, 8 is a suitable occasion to bring concentrated attention to the 9 principles of multiculturalism, Washington-British Columbia-Oregon's 10 common maritime and riverine history, and the origins and continuities
11 of Pacific Rim trade and international exchange.

12 NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The Washington state historical society, 13 as an agency dedicated to public historical education, having been

1 previously assigned the responsibility for developing a plan for the 2 observance of the maritime bicentennial, is responsible for programs
3 and services which may include:

4 (1) Exhibits, publications, historic markers, festivals,
5 conferences, reenactments, and maritime and native American crafts
6 demonstrations;

7 (2) Grants to maritime organizations and museums for capital
8 projects and operations; and

9 (3) Joint tourism promotions on the maritime and riverine themes in 10 conjunction with British Columbia and Oregon.

11 NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The sum of two hundred fifty-five 12 thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is 13 appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1993, from the general
14 fund to the Washington state historical society for the purposes of 15 section 2 of this act.
