
SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL 6266

State of Washington

52nd Legislature

1992 Regular Session

By Senate Committee on Commerce & Labor (originally sponsored by Senators Amondson and McMullen)

Read first time 02/07/92.

1 AN ACT Relating to employee privacy; and adding a new section to 2 chapter 49.44 RCW.

3 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

4 NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 49.44 RCW
5 to read as follows:

6 (1) It is unlawful for an employer to refuse to hire or to 7 discharge any individual, or otherwise disadvantage any individual, 8 with respect to compensation, terms, conditions, or privileges of 9 employment because the individual engages in the consumption of lawful 10 products off the premises of the employer during nonworking hours,
11 provided the individual complies with applicable laws or policies 12 regulating that consumption of lawful products on the premises of the 13 employer during working hours.

1 (2) It is not unlawful or an unfair employment practice under this 2 section for an employer to offer, impose, or have in effect a health, 3 disability, or life insurance policy that makes distinctions between 4 employees for the type of coverage or the coverage based upon the 5 employees' consumption of lawful products if:

6 (a) Differential premium rates charged employees reflect a 7 differential cost to the employer; and

8 (b) The employer provides employees with a written statement
9 delineating differential rates used by insurance carriers.

10 (3) It is not unlawful or an unfair employment practice under this 11 section for an employer to discharge an individual or otherwise 12 disadvantage an individual with respect to compensation, terms, 13 conditions, or privileges of employment if that decision is based on 14 the individual's failure to meet job performance standards set by the 15 employer.

16 (4) The provisions of subsection (1) of this section shall not be 17 deemed to protect any consumption of lawful products that:

18 (a) Materially threatens an employer's legitimate conflict of 19 interest policy reasonably designed to protect the employer's trade 20 secrets, proprietary information, or other proprietary interests; or

21 (b) Relates to a bona fide occupational requirement and is 22 reasonably and rationally related to the employment activities and 23 responsibilities of a particular employee or a particular group of 24 employees, rather than to all employees of the employer.

25 (5) The court shall award the prevailing party in an action under 26 this section court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees.

27 (6) In addition to other provisions of this title, the remedy for 28 any individual claiming to be aggrieved by a violation of this section 29 is a civil action for damages which includes all wages and benefits
30 deprived the individual by reason of the violation.

1 (7) Nothing in this section is intended to breach or prevent 2 collective bargaining agreements between employer and employee.
