

SI 119 - DIGEST

Provides that people have the right to death with dignity through voluntary aid-in-dying if suffering from a terminal condition.

Defines "aid-in-dying," and "terminal condition."

Revises the form for a directive to physicians.

Provides that no health facility may be required to permit the provision of aid-in-dying.

Revises liability provisions.