4 "NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter
5 49.60 RCW to read as follows:

6 (1) The commission shall make available an informational 7 brochure designed to help employers engage in employment without 8 discrimination. The commission may utilize existing informational 9 materials with any changes necessary to reflect the policies 10 embodied in this act. The commission is encouraged to consult with 11 representatives of small business to ensure that the brochure is 12 useful and practical to employers of seven or fewer employees.

13 (2) The commission shall hold educational seminars throughout 14 the state to explain to interested employers how to engage in 15 employment without discrimination.

16 (3) The commission may charge fees to participants for the 17 services required to be provided under this section. The fees 18 shall be sufficient to cover the costs of the programs and 19 materials offered."

20 Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct internal 21 references accordingly.

EFFECT: The Human Rights Commission is required to make available to employers an informational brochure and informational seminars designed to help employers engage in employment without discrimination.
