3 By Senator Skratek

4 ADOPTED 4/13/93

5 On page 19, line 31 of the amendment, after "(3)" insert "(a) It 6 shall be an additional focus of the office of educational 7 restructuring, research, and technical assistance to promote lifelong 8 learning and community involvement in education, which is defined as 9 coordinated efforts in communities to provide education to citizens of 10 all ages in a variety of settings using, to the extent possible, shared 11 funding, sites, and staffing.

12 (b) The legislature finds that promoting the effective and 13 efficient coordination of all community educational services can 14 provide for the lifelong learning and positive community involvement of 15 Washington's citizens. Educational opportunities in a community might 16 include early childhood education; parenting education and parent 17 involvement; literacy training; job training and retraining; technical 18 preparation programs; student career academies and career centers for 19 all citizens; student apprenticeships, internships, and job mentor 20 programs; tutoring; school staff sabbaticals; programs for business and 21 labor participation in schools; release-time programs for community
22 members to participate in schools; and other types of adult education, 23 including programs for senior citizens. These services might be 24 provided by state or community-based agencies including, but not 25 limited to: Public schools, including skills centers; counties, 26 cities, and towns, including parks departments, health departments, and 27 libraries; community and technical colleges; business and labor
28 organizations; service organizations; and private and nonprofit
29 organizations.

30 (c) The office shall consult with appropriate state agencies and 31 other groups and organizations that provide lifelong learning and 32 community involvement in education services and: Provide assistance to 33 local communities wishing to coordinate services for lifelong learning 34 and community involvement in education; encourage local communities to 35 coordinate program and facility resources; identify statutory and 36 regulatory provisions impeding local collaboration for lifelong 37 learning and community involvement in education; identify and promote

1 effective models of lifelong learning and community involvement in 2 education programs; and assist communities in exchanging information
3 concerning lifelong learning and community involvement in education
4 services.
