PRIVATE SECTOR JOB CREATION

17 NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The task force on private sector job
18 creation is created. The task force shall be composed of twelve 19 members as follows:

20 (1) Two members of each of the two largest caucuses of the senate,
21 to be appointed by the president of the senate;

22 (2) Two members of each of the two largest caucuses of the house of 23 representatives, to be appointed by the speaker of the house of 24 representatives; and

25 (3) Four members of the private sector, to be appointed jointly by 26 the president of the senate and the speaker of the house of 27 representatives. One of the four members shall represent employers who 28 employ twenty-five or fewer employees, one shall represent employers 29 who employ two hundred or fewer employees, one shall represent 30 employers who employ more than two hundred employees, and one shall 31 represent agricultural employers.

1 The task force shall elect its own officers, and its expenses shall 2 be paid jointly by the senate and the house of representatives.

3 NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The task force on private sector job
4 creation shall examine government disincentives to private sector job
5 creation, and make a preliminary report to the legislature before
6 January 1, 1995, and a final report to the legislature before December
7 1, 1995. The task force in its report shall identify local and state 8 government policies, rules, regulations, ordinances, and statutes that 9 are disincentives to private sector job creation, and shall recommend 10 actions to be taken by local and state governments, including proposed 11 legislation, to remove identified disincentives."

12 Renumber the remaining parts and sections consecutively and correct
13 internal references accordingly.
