1993 Regular Session

By House Committee on Judiciary (originally sponsored by Representatives Ludwig, Padden, Appelwick, Orr, Johanson and Karahalios)

1 AN ACT Relating to the revocation of nonprobate asset arrangements
2 for divorce or invalidation of marriage; and adding a new chapter to 3 Title 11 RCW.

4 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

5 NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) This section applies to all nonprobate
6 assets, wherever situated, held at the time of entry by a superior 7 court of this state of a decree of dissolution of marriage or a 8 declaration of invalidity.

9 (2)(a) If a marriage is dissolved or invalidated, a provision made 10 prior to that event that relates to the payment or transfer at death of 11 the decedent's interest in a nonprobate asset in favor of or granting 12 an interest or power to the decedent's former spouse is revoked. A 13 provision affected by this section must be interpreted, and the 14 nonprobate asset affected passes, as if the former spouse failed to 15 survive the decedent, having died at the time of entry of the decree of 16 dissolution or declaration of invalidity.

17 (b) This subsection does not apply if and to the extent that:

18 (i) The instrument governing disposition of the nonprobate asset
19 expressly provides otherwise;

1 (ii) The decree of dissolution or declaration of invalidity
2 requires that the decedent maintain a nonprobate asset for the benefit 3 of a former spouse or children of the marriage, payable on the 4 decedent's death either outright or in trust, and other nonprobate 5 assets of the decedent fulfilling such a requirement for the benefit of 6 the former spouse or children of the marriage do not exist at the 7 decedent's death; or

8 (iii) If not for this subsection, the decedent could not have 9 effected the revocation by unilateral action because of the terms of 10 the decree or declaration, or for any other reason, immediately after 11 the entry of the decree of dissolution or declaration of invalidity.

12 (3)(a) A payor or other third party in possession or control of a 13 nonprobate asset at the time of the decedent's death is not liable for 14 making a payment or transferring an interest in a nonprobate asset to 15 a decedent's former spouse whose interest in the nonprobate asset is 16 revoked under this section, or for taking another action in reliance on 17 the validity of the instrument governing disposition of the nonprobate 18 asset, before the payor or other third party has actual knowledge of 19 the dissolution or other invalidation of marriage. A payor or other 20 third party is liable for a payment or transfer made or other action 21 taken after the payor or other third party has actual knowledge of a 22 revocation under this section.

23 (b) This section does not require a payor or other third party to 24 pay or transfer a nonprobate asset to a beneficiary designated in a 25 governing instrument affected by the dissolution or other invalidation 26 of marriage, or to another person claiming an interest in the 27 nonprobate asset, if the payor or third party has actual knowledge of 28 the existence of a dispute between the former spouse and the 29 beneficiaries or other persons concerning rights of ownership of the 30 nonprobate asset as a result of the application of this section among 31 the former spouse and the beneficiaries or among other persons, or if 32 the payor or third party is otherwise uncertain as to who is entitled 33 to the nonprobate asset under this section. In such a case, the payor 34 or third party may, without liability, notify in writing all 35 beneficiaries or other persons claiming an interest in the nonprobate 36 asset of either the existence of the dispute or its uncertainty as to 37 who is entitled to payment or transfer of the nonprobate asset. The 38 payor or third party may also, without liability, refuse to pay or

1 transfer a nonprobate asset in such a circumstance to a beneficiary or 2 other person claiming an interest until the time that either:

3 (i) All beneficiaries and other interested persons claiming an 4 interest have consented in writing to the payment or transfer; or

5 (ii) The payment or transfer is authorized or directed by a court 6 of proper jurisdiction.

7 (c) Notwithstanding subsections (1) and (2) of this section and (a) 8 and (b) of this subsection, a payor or other third party having actual 9 knowledge of the existence of a dispute between beneficiaries or other 10 persons concerning rights to a nonprobate asset as a result of the 11 application of this section may condition the payment or transfer of 12 the nonprobate asset on execution, in a form and with security 13 acceptable to the payor or other third party, of a bond in an amount 14 that is double the fair market value of the nonprobate asset at the 15 time of the decedent's death or the amount of an adverse claim, 16 whichever is the lesser, or of a similar instrument to provide security 17 to the payor or other third party, indemnifying the payor or other 18 third party for any liability, loss, damage, costs, and expenses for 19 and on account of payment or transfer of the nonprobate asset.

20 (d) As used in this subsection, "actual knowledge" means, for a 21 payor or other third party in possession or control of the nonprobate 22 asset at or following the decedent's death, written notice to the payor 23 or other third party, or to an officer of a payor or third party in the 24 course of his or her employment, received after the decedent's death 25 and within a time that is sufficient to afford the payor or third party 26 a reasonable opportunity to act upon the knowledge. The notice must 27 identify the nonprobate asset with reasonable specificity. The notice 28 also must be sufficient to inform the payor or other third party of the 29 revocation of the provisions in favor of the decedent's spouse by 30 reason of the dissolution or invalidation of marriage, or to inform the 31 payor or third party of a dispute concerning rights to a nonprobate 32 asset as a result of the application of this section. Receipt of the 33 notice for a period of more than thirty days is presumed to be received 34 within a time that is sufficient to afford the payor or third party a 35 reasonable opportunity to act upon the knowledge, but receipt of the 36 notice for a period of less than five business days is presumed not to 37 be a sufficient time for these purposes. These presumptions may be 38 rebutted only by clear and convincing evidence to the contrary.

1 (4)(a) A person who purchases a nonprobate asset from a former 2 spouse or other person, for value and without actual knowledge, or who 3 receives from a former spouse or other person payment or transfer of a 4 nonprobate asset without actual knowledge and in partial or full 5 satisfaction of a legally enforceable obligation, is neither obligated 6 under this section to return the payment, property, or benefit nor is 7 liable under this section for the amount of the payment or the value of 8 the nonprobate asset. However, a former spouse or other person who, 9 with actual knowledge, not for value, or not in satisfaction of a 10 legally enforceable obligation, receives payment or transfer of a 11 nonprobate asset to which that person is not entitled under this 12 section is obligated to return the payment or nonprobate asset, or is 13 personally liable for the amount of the payment or value of the 14 nonprobate asset, to the person who is entitled to it under this 15 section.

16 (b) As used in this subsection, "actual knowledge" means, for a 17 person described in (a) of this subsection who purchases or receives a 18 nonprobate asset from a former spouse or other person, personal 19 knowledge or possession of documents relating to the revocation upon 20 dissolution or invalidation of marriage of provisions relating to the 21 payment or transfer at the decedent's death of the nonprobate asset, 22 received within a time after the decedent's death and before the 23 purchase or receipt that is sufficient to afford the person purchasing 24 or receiving the nonprobate asset reasonable opportunity to act upon 25 the knowledge. Receipt of the personal knowledge or possession of the 26 documents for a period of more than thirty days is presumed to be 27 received within a time that is sufficient to afford the payor or third 28 party a reasonable opportunity to act upon the knowledge, but receipt 29 of the notice for a period of less than five business days is presumed 30 not to be a sufficient time for these purposes. These presumptions may 31 be rebutted only by clear and convincing evidence to the contrary.

32 (5) As used in this section, "nonprobate asset" means those rights 33 and interests of a person having beneficial ownership of an asset that 34 pass on the person's death under only the following written instruments 35 or arrangements other than the decedent's will:

36 (a) A payable-on-death provision of a life insurance policy,
37 employee benefit plan, annuity or similar contract, or individual 38 retirement account;

39 (b) A payable-on-death or trust bank account; or

1 (c) A trust of which the person is a grantor and that becomes 2 effective or irrevocable only upon the person's death.

3 NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Section 1 of this act shall constitute a new 4 chapter in Title 11 RCW.
