1 AN ACT Relating to the sale and distribution of state publications;
2 and amending RCW 40.04.090.

3 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

4 Sec. 1. RCW 40.04.090 and 1982 1st ex.s. c 32 s 2 are each amended
5 to read as follows:

6 The house and senate journals shall be distributed and/or sold by 7 the state law librarian as follows:

8 (1) Subject to subsection (5) of this section, sets shall be 9 distributed as follows: One set to each secretary and assistant
10 secretary of the senate, chief clerk and assistant to the chief clerk 11 of the house of representatives, and to each minute clerk and sergeant-12 at-arms of the two branches of the legislature of which they occupy the 13 offices and positions mentioned. One to each requesting official whose 14 office is created by the Constitution, and one to each requesting state
15 department director; three copies to the University of Washington law 16 library; two copies to the University of Washington library; one to the 17 King county law library; one to the Washington State University 18 library; one to the library of each of the regional universities and to 19 The Evergreen State College; one to the law library of Gonzaga

1 University law school; one to the law library of the University of 2 Puget Sound law school; one to the law libraries of any accredited law
3 school as hereafter established in this state; and one to each free 4 public library in the state which requests it.

5 (2) House and senate journals of the preceding regular session
6 during an odd- or even-numbered year, and of any intervening special 7 session, shall be provided for use of legislators in such numbers as 8 directed by the chief clerk of the house of representatives and 9 secretary of the senate(~~(; and sufficient sets shall be retained for~~ 10 ~~the use of the state law library)~~).

11 (3) Sufficient sets shall be retained for the use of the state law
12 library. Surplus sets of the house and senate journals shall be sold 13 and delivered by the state law librarian(~~(, in which case the price~~ 14 ~~shall be thirty five dollars plus postage for those of the regular~~ 15 ~~sessions during an odd or even numbered year, and)) at a price
16 determined by the state printer to cover the costs of paper, printing, 17 binding and postage (~~for those of the special sessions, when~~ 18 ~~separately bound)), and the proceeds therefrom shall be paid to the 19 state treasurer for the general fund.~~~~

20 (4) The state law librarian is authorized to exchange copies of the 21 house and senate journals for similar journals of other states, 22 territories, and/or governments, or for other legal materials, and to 23 make such other and further distribution of them as in his or her 24 judgment seems proper.

25 (5) Periodically the state librarian may canvas those entitled to 26 receive copies under this section, and may reduce or eliminate the 27 number of copies distributed to anyone who so concurs.
