17 as follows:

1 The Washington public ports association is authorized to create a
2 federation of Washington ports to enable member ports to strengthen
3 their international trading capabilities and market the region's 4 products worldwide. Such a federation shall maintain the authority of 5 individual ports and have the following purposes:

6 (1) To operate as an export trading company under the provisions
7 enumerated in chapter 53.31 RCW;

8 (2) To provide a network to market the services of the members of 9 the Washington public ports association;

10 (3) To provide expertise and assistance to businesses interested in 11 export markets;

12 (4) To promote cooperative efforts between ports and local 13 associate development organizations to assist local economic 14 development efforts and build local capacity; and

15 (5) To assist in the efficient marketing of the state's trade,
16 tourism, and travel resources.

17 (~~This section shall expire July 1, 1994, and shall be subject to~~ 18 ~~review under chapter 43.131 RCW.~~)
