By Representatives Finkbeiner, Campbell, B. Thomas, J. Kohl, Eide, Lemmon, Johanson, Cothorn, Flemming, L. Thomas, Shin, Caver, Hansen, Conway, Backlund, Bray, Moak, Foreman, Dunshee, Romero, Kessler, L. Johnson, Quall, Talcott, Brough, Patterson, G. Cole, Casada, Tate and Anderson

Read first time 03/08/94.

1 BE IT RESOLVED, By the House of Representatives, the Senate
2 concurring, that the Joint Legislative Systems Committee shall provide 3 members of the public with electronic access to public legislative 4 information such as bills, bill digests, bill reports, and resolutions.
5 In carrying out this responsibility the committee shall consider: The 6 various data bases and documents maintained on the legislative 7 information system; the desire by members of the public for electronic 8 access; the method and format best suited for providing public access; 9 the need to provide the most current and accurate information; the 10 educational purpose that would be served by granting public access; the 11 need to maintain the integrity and security of the legislative computer 12 system; the capital and operating costs of providing public access; and 13 the desirability of providing access at no cost or lowest cost possible 14 to the general public. By October 1, 1994, the committee shall have 15 adopted a plan for carrying out this rule.
