

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 93-4661, by Representatives Veloria, Leonard, Conway, Rust, R. Meyers and Patterson

WHEREAS, The Washington State Legislature honors citizens whose acts of generosity and general kindness toward others is truly self-sacrificing, and further whose largess touches not just a few, but is spread to a great number both directly and indirectly; and

WHEREAS, Alice Coleman, a resident of the 11th district, exemplifies each of the above qualities through her tireless devotion to the well-being of this body, both members and staff, by providing exquisite baked goods to numerous representatives, aides, and others, on not less than five occasions; and

WHEREAS, The benefit of these delights directly affects those who enjoy them and their influence is shared with others through the goodwill and improved disposition of the individuals recognizing the tenderness and caring placed within each treat; and

WHEREAS, The physical fulfillment gained is pleasant and it is the emotional and psychological implications that should be recognized for their lasting and far-reaching result; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Coleman could simply do as she does for her son alone, Representative Calvin Anderson, yet she chooses to share herself with those she does not even know; Truly she is a wonderful woman and deserving of recognition;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives commend Alice Coleman for her generosity, kindness, and support for those housed herein; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives immediately transmit copies of this resolution to Alice Coleman and Representative Calvin Anderson.

I hereby certify this to be a true and correct copy of Resolution 4661 adopted by the House of Representatives
April 23, 1993.

Alan Thompson, Chief Clerk
