Secretary of State
State of Washington
AN ACT Relating to the requirements to obtain a real estate broker’s or salesperson’s license; amending RCW 18.85.090, 18.85.095, 18.85.215, and 18.85.097; and providing an effective date.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Sec. 1. RCW 18.85.090 and 1985 c 162 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

((The commission shall be responsible for the preparation of the examination to be submitted to applicants, and shall make and file with the director a list, which may be signed by a majority of the members of the commission conducting the examination, of all applicants who successfully passed the examination and of those who failed.
Any applicant who fails to pass the examination may apply again.
No applicant shall be permitted to take the examination for a real estate broker’s license without first satisfying the director that the applicant:

(1) Has had a minimum of two years of actual experience as a full time real estate salesman in this state or in another state having comparable requirements within the five years previous to applying for said examination or is, in the opinion of the director, otherwise and

p. 1 ESB 6284.SL
similarly qualified, or is otherwise qualified, by reason of practical experience in a business allied with or related to real estate;

(2) Is eighteen years of age or older;

(3) Has a high school diploma or its equivalent;

(4) Has furnished proof, as the director may require, that the applicant has completed successfully ninety clock hours of instruction in real estate. Instruction must include one course in brokerage management and one course in real estate law. Each course must be at least thirty clock hours. Courses must be completed within five years prior to applying for the examination.

The requirements of subsections (1) through (4) of this section shall not apply to persons who are licensed as brokers under any real estate license law in Washington which exists prior to this law’s enactment and whose license has not been subsequently revoked.

Provided, That requirements for brokers created by this 1972 amendatory act shall apply to any person who is licensed as a salesman on or before May 23, 1972, if such person shall apply to become a broker or associate broker after May 23, 1972.

(1) The minimum requirements for an individual to receive a broker’s license are that the individual:

(a) Is eighteen years of age or older;

(b) Has a high school diploma or its equivalent;

(c) Has had a minimum of two years of actual experience as a full-time real estate salesperson in this state or in another state having comparable requirements within the five years previous to applying for the broker’s license examination or is, in the opinion of the director, otherwise and similarly qualified, or is otherwise qualified by reason of practical experience in a business allied with or related to real estate;

(d) Except as provided in RCW 18.85.097, has furnished proof, as the director may require, that the applicant has successfully completed one hundred twenty hours of instruction in real estate. Instruction must include one course in brokerage management, one course in real estate law, one course in business management, and one elective course. Each course must be completed within five years prior to applying for the broker’s license examination, be at least thirty clock hours, and be approved by the director. The applicant must pass a course examination, approved by the director for each course used to satisfy the broker’s license requirement; and

(e) Has passed the broker’s license examination.
(2) Nothing in this section applies to persons who are licensed as brokers under any real estate law in Washington that exists prior to this law’s enactment, but only if their license has not been subsequently canceled or revoked.

Sec. 2. RCW 18.85.095 and 1988 c 205 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

((1) It is hereby established that the minimum requirements for an individual to receive a salesperson’s license are that the individual:
   (a) Is eighteen years of age or older;
   (b) Has passed a salesperson’s examination; and
   (c) Except as provided in RCW 18.85.097, has successfully completed a thirty clock hour course in real estate fundamentals prior to obtaining a first real estate license.

(2) Except as provided in RCW 18.85.097, no licensed salesperson shall have his or her license renewed a second time unless he or she furnishes proof, as the director may require, that he or she has successfully completed an additional thirty clock hours of instruction in real estate courses approved by the director. This subsection shall expire January 1, 1991.

Nothing in this section shall apply to persons who are licensed as salespersons under any real estate license law in Washington which exists prior to this law’s enactment and whose license has not been subsequently revoked.))

(1) The minimum requirements for an individual to receive a salesperson’s license are that the individual:
   (a) Is eighteen years of age or older;
   (b) Except as provided in RCW 18.85.087, has furnished proof, as the director may require, that the applicant has successfully completed a sixty clock-hour course, approved by the director, in real estate fundamentals. The applicant must pass a course examination approved by the director. This course must be completed within five years prior to applying for the salesperson’s license examination; and
   (c) Has passed a salesperson’s license examination.

(2) The minimum requirements for a salesperson to be issued the first renewal of a license are that the salesperson:
   (a) Has furnished proof, as the director may require, that the salesperson has successfully completed a thirty clock-hour course, from a prescribed curriculum approved by the director, in real estate practices. The salesperson must pass a course examination approved by the director. This course shall be commenced after issuance of a first license; and

(b) Has furnished proof, as the director may require, that the salesperson has completed an additional thirty clock hours of continuing education in compliance with RCW 18.85.165. Courses for continuing education clock-hour credit shall be commenced after issuance of a first license.

(3) Nothing in this section applies to persons who are licensed as salespersons under any real estate law in Washington which exists prior to this law’s enactment, but only if their license has not been subsequently canceled or revoked.

Sec. 3. RCW 18.85.215 and 1988 c 205 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any license issued under this chapter and not otherwise revoked shall be deemed "inactive" at any time it is delivered to the director. Until reissued under this chapter, the holder of an inactive license shall be deemed to be unlicensed.

(2) An inactive license may be renewed on the same terms and conditions as an active license, except that a person with an inactive license need not comply with the ((continuing)) education requirements of RCW 18.85.095(2)(a) or 18.85.165. Failure to renew shall result in cancellation in the same manner as an active license.

(3) An inactive license may be placed in an active status upon completion of an application as provided by the director and upon compliance with this chapter and the rules adopted pursuant thereto. ((Subject to RCW 18.85.097,)) If a holder has an inactive license for more than three years, the holder must show proof of successfully completing a thirty clock hour course in real estate within one year prior to the application for active status. Holders employed by the state and conducting real estate transactions on behalf of the state are exempt from this course requirement.

(4) The provisions of this chapter relating to the denial, suspension, and revocation of a license shall be applicable to an inactive license as well as an active license, except that when proceedings to suspend or revoke an inactive license have been initiated, the license shall remain inactive until the proceedings have been completed.
NEW SECTION.  Sec. 4.  RCW 18.85.097 and 1987 c 332 s 18 are each amended to read as follows:

((The director may waive the thirty clock-hour requirements in RCW 18.85.095 and 18.85.215 if the director makes a determination that the individual is otherwise and similarly qualified by reason of practical experience in a business allied with or related to real estate)) The director may allow for substitution of the clock-hour requirements in RCW 18.85.090(1)(d) and RCW 18.85.095(1)(b), if the director makes a determination that the individual is otherwise and similarly qualified by reason of completion of equivalent educational coursework in any institution of higher education as defined in RCW 28B.10.016 or any degree-granting institution as defined in RCW 28B.85.010 approved by the director. The director shall establish by rule, guidelines for determining equivalent educational coursework.

NEW SECTION.  Sec. 5.  This act shall take effect July 1, 1995.
