3 On page 8, line 19 of the amendment adopted by the House,
4 after "this section" strike all material through "dollars." on line
5 27 and insert ", it shall be unlawful for any person to operate a 6 food storage warehouse in the state without first having obtained
7 an annual license from the department, which shall expire on a date
8 set by rule by the director. Application for a license or license 9 renewal shall be on a form prescribed by the director and 10 accompanied by the license fee. The license fee is fifty dollars.

11 For a food storage warehouse that has been inspected on at 12 least an annual basis for compliance with the provisions of the 13 current good manufacturing practices (Title 21 C.F.R. part 110) by 14 a federal agency or by a state agency acting on behalf of and under 15 contract with a federal agency and is not also exempted from paying 16 the license fee by section 11 of this act, the annual license fee
17 for the warehouse is twenty-five dollars."

19 On page 9, line 9 of the amendment adopted by the House, after 20 "basis" strike all material through "years." on line 19 and insert
21 "by an independent sanitation consultant approved by the department
22 shall be exempted from the license fee under this chapter.

23 A report identifying the inspector and the inspecting entity, 24 the date of the inspection, and any violations noted on such 25 inspection shall be forwarded to the department by the food storage
26 warehouse within sixty days of the completion of the inspection.
27 An inspection shall be conducted and an inspection report for a 28 food storage warehouse shall be filed with the department at least 29 once every twelve months or the warehouse shall not be exempted 30 from the license fee for a period of two years."

EFFECT: A food storage warehouse inspected by a federal agency or by a state agency acting on behalf of and under contract with a federal agency is no longer exempted from licensure as a food storage warehouse; however, the licensing fee is reduced for such a warehouse. A warehouse inspected by an independent consultant is no longer exempted from licensure; it is exempted from paying the licensing fee.
