7 "NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 43.101
8 RCW to read as follows:

9 (1) The Washington association of sheriffs and police chiefs shall 10 assemble a study group to evaluate and make recommendations to the 11 legislature regarding the commission mission, duties, and 12 administration. The commissioners of the commission shall review the 13 study group recommendations for acceptance or modification. The study
14 group shall deliver its recommendations to the legislature by January 15 1, 1997.

16 (2) The study group shall:

17 (a) Review and evaluate the desirability and feasibility of 18 providing basic law enforcement training to preemployed law enforcement 19 officer applicants on a tuition or fee basis;

20 (b) Review and evaluate the adequacy of the commission's four-21 hundred-forty-hour basic law enforcement academy training program,
22 including general curriculum requirements;

23 (c) Review and evaluate the status of supervisory, management, and 24 advanced training for incumbent law enforcement officers, and the 25 desirability and feasibility of providing the officers with advanced 26 training;

27 (d) Review the desirability and feasibility of certification or 28 licensing of law enforcement officers;

29 (e) Review and evaluate the adequacy of the capital and operating 30 investments made in law enforcement training, make recommendations 31 regarding improvements, and provide documentation of the cost of 32 implementing the improvements;

33 (f) Review and make recommendations regarding funding sources to 34 adequately support all recommendations; and

35 (g) Investigate other issues related to law enforcement training, 36 as desired by the study group.

1 (3) The Washington association of sheriffs and police chiefs shall 2 assemble the study group from names provided from the following
3 entities or groups: One sheriff; three police chiefs; four 4 representatives from the Washington state council of police officers;
5 two representatives employed by the criminal justice training 6 commission; one police psychologist; one representative from the 7 association of Washington cities; one representative from the
