RECOMMENDED PROSECUTING STANDARDS FOR CHARGING AND PLEA DISPOSITIONS

5 INTRODUCTION: These standards are intended solely for the 6 guidance of prosecutors in the state of Washington. They are not 7 intended to, do not, and may not be relied upon to create a right or 8 benefit, substantive or procedural, enforceable at law by a party in 9 litigation with the state.

10 Evidentiary sufficiency.

11 (1) Decision not to prosecute.

12 STANDARD: A prosecuting attorney may decline to prosecute, even 13 though technically sufficient evidence to prosecute exists, in 14 situations where prosecution would serve no public purpose, would 15 defeat the underlying purpose of the law in question, or would result 16 in decreased respect for the law. The decision not to prosecute or 17 divert shall not be influenced by the race, gender, religion, or creed 18 of the suspect.

19 GUIDELINES/COMMENTARY:

20 Examples

The following are examples of reasons not to prosecute which could satisfy the standard.

(a) Contrary to Legislative Intent - It may be proper to decline to charge where the application of criminal sanctions would be clearly contrary to the intent of the legislature in enacting the particular statute.

(b) Antiquated Statute - It may be proper to decline to chargewhere the statute in question is antiquated in that:

29 (i) It has not been enforced for many years;

30 (ii) Most members of society act as if it were no longer in 31 existence;

32 (iii) It serves no deterrent or protective purpose in today's33 society; and 34 (iv) The statute has not been recently reconsidered by the 35 legislature.

This reason is not to be construed as the basis for declining cases because the law in question is unpopular or because it is difficult to enforce. 1 (c) De Minimis Violation - It may be proper to decline to charge 2 where the violation of law is only technical or insubstantial and where 3 no public interest or deterrent purpose would be served by prosecution.

4 (d) Confinement on Other Charges - It may be proper to decline to 5 charge because the accused has been sentenced on another charge to a 6 lengthy period of confinement; and

7 (i) Conviction of the new offense would not merit any additional8 direct or collateral punishment;

9 (ii) The new offense is either a misdemeanor or a felony which is 10 not particularly aggravated; and 11 (iii) Conviction of the new offense would not serve any 12 significant deterrent purpose.

(e) Pending Conviction on Another Charge - It may be proper to decline to charge because the accused is facing a pending prosecution in the same or another county; and 16 (i) Conviction of the new offense would not merit any additional 17 direct or collateral punishment;

18

(ii) Conviction in the pending prosecution is imminent;

(iii) The new offense is either a misdemeanor or a felony which isnot particularly aggravated; and

(iv) Conviction of the new offense would not serve any significantdeterrent purpose.

(f) High Disproportionate Cost of Prosecution - It may be proper to decline to charge where the cost of locating or transporting, or the burden on, prosecution witnesses is highly disproportionate to the importance of prosecuting the offense in question. The reason should be limited to minor cases and should not be relied upon in serious cases.

(g) Improper Motives of Complainant - It may be proper to decline charges because the motives of the complainant are improper and prosecution would serve no public purpose, would defeat the underlying purpose of the law in question, or would result in decreased respect for the law.

(h) Immunity - It may be proper to decline to charge where immunity is to be given to an accused in order to prosecute another where the accused information or testimony will reasonably lead to the conviction of others who are responsible for more serious criminal conduct or who represent a greater danger to the public interest.

(i) Victim Request - It may be proper to decline to charge because the victim requests that no criminal charges be filed and the case involves the following crimes or situations:

4 (i) Assault cases where the victim has suffered little or no 5 injury;

6 (ii) Crimes against property, not involving violence, where no 7 major loss was suffered;

8 (iii) Where doing so would not jeopardize the safety of society. 9 Care should be taken to insure that the victim's request is freely 10 made and is not the product of threats or pressure by the accused.

11 The presence of these factors may also justify the decision to 12 dismiss a prosecution which has been commenced.

13 Notification

14 The prosecutor is encouraged to notify the victim, when practical, 15 and the law enforcement personnel, of the decision not to prosecute.

16 (2) Decision to prosecute.

17 STANDARD:

Crimes against persons will be filed if sufficient admissible 18 19 evidence exists, which, when considered with the most plausible, reasonably foreseeable defense that could be raised under the evidence, 20 would justify conviction by a reasonable and objective fact-finder. 21 With regard to offenses prohibited by RCW 9A.44.040, 9A.44.050, 22 9A.44.073, 9A.44.076, 9A.44.079, 9A.44.083, 9A.44.086, 9A.44.089, and 23 24 9A.64.020 the prosecutor should avoid prefiling agreements or 25 diversions intended to place the accused in a program of treatment or counseling, so that treatment, if determined to be beneficial, can be 26 proved under RCW 13.40.160(((++))) (3). 27

Crimes against property/other crimes will be filed if the admissible evidence is of such convincing force as to make it probable that a reasonable and objective fact-finder would convict after hearing all the admissible evidence and the most plausible defense that could be raised.

The categorization of crimes for these charging standards shall be the same as found in RCW 9.94A.440(2).

The decision to prosecute or use diversion shall not be influenced by the race, gender, religion, or creed of the respondent.

37 (3) Selection of Charges/Degree of Charge

(a) The prosecutor should file charges which adequately describe the nature of the respondent's conduct. Other offenses may be charged only if they are necessary to ensure that the charges:

4 (i) Will significantly enhance the strength of the state's case at 5 trial; or

6

(ii) Will result in restitution to all victims.

7 (b) The prosecutor should not overcharge to obtain a guilty plea.8 Overcharging includes:

9

(i) Charging a higher degree;

10

(ii) Charging additional counts.

This standard is intended to direct prosecutors to charge those crimes which demonstrate the nature and seriousness of a respondent's criminal conduct, but to decline to charge crimes which are not necessary to such an indication. Crimes which do not merge as a matter of law, but which arise from the same course of conduct, do not all have to be charged.

(4) Police Investigation

A prosecuting attorney is dependent upon law enforcement agencies to conduct the necessary factual investigation which must precede the decision to prosecute. The prosecuting attorney shall ensure that a thorough factual investigation has been conducted before a decision to prosecute is made. In ordinary circumstances the investigation should include the following:

(a) The interviewing of all material witnesses, together with theobtaining of written statements whenever possible;

26

(b) The completion of necessary laboratory tests; and

(c) The obtaining, in accordance with constitutional requirements,of the suspect's version of the events.

If the initial investigation is incomplete, a prosecuting attorney should insist upon further investigation before a decision to prosecute is made, and specify what the investigation needs to include.

32 (5) Exceptions

33 In certain situations, a prosecuting attorney may authorize filing 34 of a criminal complaint before the investigation is complete if:

(a) Probable cause exists to believe the suspect is guilty; and
(b) The suspect presents a danger to the community or is likely to flee if not apprehended; or 38 (c) The arrest of the suspect is necessary to complete the 39 investigation of the crime. In the event that the exception to the standard is applied, the prosecuting attorney shall obtain a commitment from the law enforcement agency involved to complete the investigation in a timely manner. If the subsequent investigation does not produce sufficient evidence to meet the normal charging standard, the complaint should be dismissed.

(6) Investigation Techniques

7 The prosecutor should be fully advised of the investigatory 8 techniques that were used in the case investigation including:

9 (a) Polygraph testing;

10 (b) Hypnosis;

6

11 (c) Electronic surveillance;

12 (d) Use of informants.

13 (7) Prefiling Discussions with Defendant

Discussions with the defendant or his or her representative regarding the selection or disposition of charges may occur prior to the filing of charges, and potential agreements can be reached.

17 (8) Plea dispositions:

18 STANDARD

(a) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, a respondent will normally be expected to plead guilty to the charge or charges which adequately describe the nature of his or her criminal conduct or go to trial.

(b) In certain circumstances, a plea agreement with a respondent in exchange for a plea of guilty to a charge or charges that may not fully describe the nature of his or her criminal conduct may be necessary and in the public interest. Such situations may include the following:

(i) Evidentiary problems which make conviction of the originalcharges doubtful;

30 (ii) The respondent's willingness to cooperate in the 31 investigation or prosecution of others whose criminal conduct is more 32 serious or represents a greater public threat;

33 (iii) A request by the victim when it is not the result of 34 pressure from the respondent;

35 (iv) The discovery of facts which mitigate the seriousness of the 36 respondent's conduct;

(v) The correction of errors in the initial charging decision;
(vi) The respondent's history with respect to criminal activity;

(vii) The nature and seriousness of the offense or offenses charged;

(viii) The probable effect of witnesses.

4 (c) No plea agreement shall be influenced by the race, gender, 5 religion, or creed of the respondent. This includes but is not limited 6 to the prosecutor's decision to utilize such disposition alternatives 7 as the Special Sex Offender Disposition Alternative, the Chemical 8 Dependency Disposition Alternative, and manifest injustice.

9

(9) Disposition recommendations:

10 STANDARD

11 The prosecutor may reach an agreement regarding disposition 12 recommendations.

13 The prosecutor shall not agree to withhold relevant information 14 from the court concerning the plea agreement.

15 Sec. 3. RCW 13.40.160 and 1997 c 338 s 25 and 1997 c 265 s 1 are 16 each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) The standard range disposition for a juvenile adjudicated ofan offense is determined according to RCW 13.40.0357.

19 (a) When the court sentences an offender to a local sanction as 20 provided in RCW 13.40.0357 option A, the court shall impose a 21 determinate disposition within the standard ranges, except as provided 22 in subsections (2), ((+4))) (3), and (5) of this section. The 23 disposition may be comprised of one or more local sanctions.

(b) When the court sentences an offender to a standard range as provided in RCW 13.40.0357 option A that includes a term of confinement exceeding thirty days, commitment shall be to the department for the standard range of confinement, except as provided in subsections (2), (((4))) (3), and (5) of this section.

(2) If the court concludes, and enters reasons for its conclusion, that disposition within the standard range would effectuate a manifest injustice the court shall impose a disposition outside the standard range, as indicated in option C of RCW 13.40.0357. The court's finding of manifest injustice shall be supported by clear and convincing evidence.

A disposition outside the standard range shall be determinate and shall be comprised of confinement or community supervision, or a combination thereof. When a judge finds a manifest injustice and imposes a sentence of confinement exceeding thirty days, the court 1 shall sentence the juvenile to a maximum term, and the provisions of 2 RCW 13.40.030(2) shall be used to determine the range. A disposition 3 outside the standard range is appealable under RCW 13.40.230 by the 4 state or the respondent. A disposition within the standard range is 5 not appealable under RCW 13.40.230.

6 (3) ((Where a respondent is found to have committed an offense for 7 which the respondent declined to enter into a diversion agreement, the 8 court shall impose a term of community supervision limited to the 9 conditions allowed in a diversion agreement as provided in RCW 10 13.40.080(2).

(4))) When a juvenile offender is found to have committed a sex offense, other than a sex offense that is also a serious violent offense as defined by RCW 9.94A.030, and has no history of a prior sex offense, the court, on its own motion or the motion of the state or the respondent, may order an examination to determine whether the respondent is amenable to treatment.

The report of the examination shall include at a minimum the 17 The respondent's version of the facts and the official 18 following: 19 version of the facts, the respondent's offense history, an assessment 20 of problems in addition to alleged deviant behaviors, the respondent's social, educational, and employment situation, and other evaluation 21 22 measures used. The report shall set forth the sources of the 23 evaluator's information.

The examiner shall assess and report regarding the respondent's amenability to treatment and relative risk to the community. A proposed treatment plan shall be provided and shall include, at a minimum:

(a)(i) Frequency and type of contact between the offender andtherapist;

30 (ii) Specific issues to be addressed in the treatment and 31 description of planned treatment modalities;

(iii) Monitoring plans, including any requirements regarding living conditions, lifestyle requirements, and monitoring by family members, legal guardians, or others;

35

(iv) Anticipated length of treatment; and

36 (v) Recommended crime-related prohibitions.

The court on its own motion may order, or on a motion by the state shall order, a second examination regarding the offender's amenability to treatment. The evaluator shall be selected by the party making the 1 motion. The defendant shall pay the cost of any second examination 2 ordered unless the court finds the defendant to be indigent in which 3 case the state shall pay the cost.

4 After receipt of reports of the examination, the court shall then consider whether the offender and the community will benefit from use 5 of this special sex offender disposition alternative and consider the б 7 victim's opinion whether the offender should receive a treatment 8 disposition under this section. If the court determines that this 9 special sex offender disposition alternative is appropriate, then the 10 court shall impose a determinate disposition within the standard range for the offense, or if the court concludes, and enters reasons for its 11 conclusions, that such disposition would cause a manifest injustice, 12 13 the court shall impose a disposition under option C, and the court may suspend the execution of the disposition and place the offender on 14 15 community supervision for at least two years. As a condition of the 16 suspended disposition, the court may impose the conditions of community supervision and other conditions, including up to thirty days of 17 confinement and requirements that the offender do any one or more of 18 19 the following:

20 (b)(i) Devote time to a specific education, employment, or 21 occupation;

22 (ii) Undergo available outpatient sex offender treatment for up to two years, or inpatient sex offender treatment not to exceed the 23 24 standard range of confinement for that offense. A community mental 25 health center may not be used for such treatment unless it has an 26 appropriate program designed for sex offender treatment. The respondent shall not change sex offender treatment providers or 27 28 treatment conditions without first notifying the prosecutor, the 29 probation counselor, and the court, and shall not change providers 30 without court approval after a hearing if the prosecutor or probation counselor object to the change; 31

(iii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the probation counselor prior to any change in the offender's address, educational program, or employment;

(iv) Report to the prosecutor and the probation counselor prior to any change in a sex offender treatment provider. This change shall have prior approval by the court;

38

(v) Report as directed to the court and a probation counselor;

(vi) Pay all court-ordered legal financial obligations, perform community service, or any combination thereof;

3 (vii) Make restitution to the victim for the cost of any 4 counseling reasonably related to the offense;

5 (viii) Comply with the conditions of any court-ordered probation 6 bond; or

7 (ix) The court shall order that the offender may not attend the 8 public or approved private elementary, middle, or high school attended 9 by the victim or the victim's siblings. The parents or legal guardians 10 of the offender are responsible for transportation or other costs associated with the offender's change of school that would otherwise be 11 paid by the school district. The court shall send notice of the 12 disposition and restriction on attending the same school as the victim 13 or victim's siblings to the public or approved private school the 14 15 juvenile will attend, if known, or if unknown, to the approved private 16 schools and the public school district board of directors of the 17 district in which the juvenile resides or intends to reside. This notice must be sent at the earliest possible date but not later than 18 19 ten calendar days after entry of the disposition.

The sex offender treatment provider shall submit quarterly reports on the respondent's progress in treatment to the court and the parties. The reports shall reference the treatment plan and include at a minimum the following: Dates of attendance, respondent's compliance with requirements, treatment activities, the respondent's relative progress in treatment, and any other material specified by the court at the time of the disposition.

At the time of the disposition, the court may set treatment review hearings as the court considers appropriate.

29 Except as provided in this subsection $\left(\left(\frac{4}{4}\right)\right)$, after July 1, 30 1991, examinations and treatment ordered pursuant to this subsection shall only be conducted by sex offender treatment providers certified 31 by the department of health pursuant to chapter 18.155 RCW. 32 A sex offender therapist who examines or treats a juvenile sex offender 33 pursuant to this subsection does not have to be certified by the 34 35 department of health pursuant to chapter 18.155 RCW if the court finds that: (A) The offender has already moved to another state or plans to 36 37 move to another state for reasons other than circumventing the certification requirements; (B) no certified providers are available 38 39 for treatment within a reasonable geographical distance of the

1 offender's home; and (C) the evaluation and treatment plan comply with 2 this subsection (((4))) and the rules adopted by the department of 3 health.

4 If the offender violates any condition of the disposition or the court finds that the respondent is failing to make satisfactory 5 progress in treatment, the court may revoke the suspension and order 6 7 execution of the disposition or the court may impose a penalty of up to 8 thirty days' confinement for violating conditions of the disposition. 9 The court may order both execution of the disposition and up to thirty 10 days' confinement for the violation of the conditions of the The court shall give credit for any confinement time 11 disposition. previously served if that confinement was for the offense for which the 12 13 suspension is being revoked.

For purposes of this section, "victim" means any person who has sustained emotional, psychological, physical, or financial injury to person or property as a direct result of the crime charged. "Victim" may also include a known parent or guardian of a victim who is a minor child unless the parent or guardian is the perpetrator of the offense.

19 A disposition entered under this subsection ((++)) (3) is not 20 appealable under RCW 13.40.230.

21 (((5))) (4) If the juvenile offender is subject to a standard 22 range disposition of local sanctions or 15 to 36 weeks of confinement 23 and has not committed an A- or B+ offense, the court may impose the 24 disposition alternative under RCW 13.40.165.

(5) If the juvenile offender has not been previously committed to a state institution, but is presently subject to a standard range disposition of confinement to a state institution and has not committed a sex offense, a serious violent offense as defined in RCW 9.94A.030, or other violent category A felony as defined in RCW 13.40.0357, the court may impose a community sanction disposition alternative under section 4 of this act.

(6) RCW 13.40.193 shall govern the disposition of any juvenile adjudicated of possessing a firearm in violation of RCW 9.41.040(1)(b)(iii) or any crime in which a special finding is entered that the juvenile was armed with a firearm.

36 (7) Whenever a juvenile offender is entitled to credit for time 37 spent in detention prior to a dispositional order, the dispositional 38 order shall specifically state the number of days of credit for time 39 served.

1 (8) Except as provided under subsection (3), (4), or (5) of this 2 section or RCW 13.40.127, the court shall not suspend or defer the 3 imposition or the execution of the disposition.

4 (9) In no case shall the term of confinement imposed by the court 5 at disposition exceed that to which an adult could be subjected for the 6 same offense.

7 NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 13.40 RCW 8 to read as follows:

9 (1) When a juvenile offender is subject to a standard range disposition of confinement to a state institution and has not been 10 previously committed to a state institution, the court, on its own 11 motion or on the motion of the state or the respondent may order a 12 community sanction disposition alternative in lieu of confinement in a 13 14 state institution if the offender has not committed a sex offense, a 15 serious violent offense as defined in RCW 9.94A.030, or other violent category A felony as defined in RCW 13.40.0357. 16

In determining whether to order a community sanction 17 (2) 18 disposition, the court shall assess the risk to the public safety and the probability of the offender's rehabilitation in the community. If 19 a victim wishes to voice his or her opinion regarding the 20 appropriateness of a community sanction disposition, the court shall 21 hear and give great weight to the testimony of any victim who expresses 22 23 the opinion. The court may not impose the community sanction 24 disposition alternative unless a finding of mitigating circumstances 25 under RCW 13.40.150 is entered. If the court determines that a community sanction disposition alternative is appropriate, the court 26 27 shall impose the standard range for the offense, suspend execution of the disposition, and place the offender on community supervision for a 28 29 term not to exceed twelve months.

30 (3) As a condition of the suspended disposition, the court shall impose conditions of community sanctions including 0 to 30 days of 31 confinement, up to one hundred fifty hours of community service, and 32 33 the payment of legal financial obligations and restitution. The court may also require the offender to participate in rehabilitation 34 programming in the community including school, employment, vocational 35 36 programs, or outpatient mental health or substance abuse treatment. Required rehabilitative programs should be research-based and use the 37 best practices available. 38

(4) At the time of the disposition, the court may set review hearings as the court deems appropriate.

3 (5) If the offender violates any conditions of the community 4 sanction disposition, the court may impose sanctions under RCW 5 13.40.200, or may revoke the suspended disposition and order execution 6 of the standard range disposition.

7 (6) If the court revokes the suspended sentence, the court shall 8 give credit for any confinement time previously served. Whenever a 9 juvenile offender is entitled to credit for time spent in detention, 10 the dispositional order shall specifically state the number of days of 11 credit for time served.

12 NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 13.40 RCW 13 to read as follows:

14 The juvenile rehabilitation administration, in consultation with 15 the Washington association of juvenile courts administrators, shall develop a methodology for distributing to the counties for the purpose 16 of providing financial assistance in meeting the processes and services 17 18 required by chapter 13.32A RCW, and RCW 28A.225.030 and 28A.225.035 from the savings realized by the use of the community sanction 19 disposition alternative authorized under RCW 13.40.160(5) and section 20 4 of this act based on each county's use of that alternative. 21 The implementation of the distribution established in this section is 22 23 subject to appropriation by the legislature. Funding distributed under 24 this section must be credited to any liability the state has under 25 chapter 43.135 RCW for any claims resulting from county costs in implementing amendments to chapter 13.32A RCW and RCW 28A.225.030 and 26 28A.225.035 enacted during fiscal years 1995 through 1998. 27

28 NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Sections 1 through 4 of this act apply to 29 crimes committed on or after July 1, 1999.

30 NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. This act is necessary for the immediate 31 preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the 32 state government and its existing public institutions, and takes effect 33 July 1, 1999.
