5 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

7 as follows:

8 (1) The legislature recognizes that some individuals in this state 9 are problem or compulsive gamblers. Because the state promotes and 10 regulates gambling through the activities of the state lottery
11 commission, the Washington horse racing commission, and the Washington 12 state gambling commission, the state has the responsibility to continue 13 to provide resources for the support of services for problem and 14 compulsive gamblers. ((Therefore,))

15 (2) The Washington state gambling commission, the Washington horse 16 racing commission, and the state lottery commission shall jointly 17 develop informational signs concerning problem and compulsive gambling 18 which include a toll-free hot line number for problem and compulsive

1 gamblers. The signs shall be placed in the establishments of gambling 2 licensees, horse racing licensees, and lottery retailers.

3 (3) The Washington state gambling commission shall establish, in 4 consultation with the state lottery commission and the Washington horse 5 racing commission, one or more programs to increase awareness of 6 problem and compulsive gambling, to curb problem and compulsive
7 gambling, and to identify and treat problem and compulsive gamblers.
8 These programs may include preparing, publishing, and distributing 9 educational materials on the nature and effects of problem and 10 compulsive gambling.

11 (4) The Washington state gambling commission, in developing and 12 implementing programs under subsection (3) of this section, may enlist 13 the assistance of, and contract with, other public and private 14 agencies, organizations, and individuals for carrying out the programs.

15 (5) The Washington state gambling commission may require a licensee 16 who operates house-banked or player-funded social card games to have a 17 plan for dealing with problem and compulsive gamblers on its gambling 18 premises, which may include: (a) Prominent posting of notices of 19 agencies providing services to problem or compulsive gamblers and 20 warnings about problem gambling; (b) reasonable accessibility to 21 patrons of printed materials addressing problem or compulsive gambling; 22 and (c) education and training of employees in identifying persons who 23 exhibit problem or compulsive gambling conduct.

24 (6) To carry out the purposes of this section, the Washington state
25 gambling commission shall annually disburse from the gambling revolving 26 fund not less than ten percent of any surplus moneys in such fund in 27 excess of expenses relative to commission business.
