
ENGROSSED SENATE BILL 6232

State of Washington

56th Legislature

2000 Regular Session

By Senators Fairley, Oke, Hochstatter and Rasmussen; by request of Office of the Lieutenant Governor, Department of Labor & Industries and Department of Social and Health Services

Read first time 01/11/2000. Referred to Committee on Labor & Workforce Development.

1 AN ACT Relating to industrial insurance premiums for employers with 2 drug-free workplace programs; amending RCW 49.82.901; creating a new 3 section; and providing an expiration date.

4 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

5 Sec. 1. RCW 49.82.901 and 1996 c 127 s 18 are each amended to read 6 as follows:

7 Sections 1 through 14 and 16 of this act (~~shall~~) expire January 8 1, (~~2001~~) 2004.

9 NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The department of labor and industries, in 10 full consultation with the department of social and health services,
11 shall conduct a cost-benefit evaluation of the drug-free workplace
12 program. The evaluation shall take into account both the qualitative 13 and quantitative benefits and costs of the program. If the department 14 of labor and industries contracts for the performance of any or all of 15 the evaluation, no more than ten percent of the contract amount may be 16 used to cover indirect expenses. The departments of labor and 17 industries and social and health services shall submit an interim

1 report to the legislature on September 1, 2001, and shall issue a final 2 evaluation report on December 1, 2002.
