Brief Description: Reviewing transportation administration practices.

HB 1665 - DIGEST

Directs the joint legislative audit and review committee to conduct a performance review of the administrative practices of the Washington state department of transportation. The purpose of the review is to clarify operational costs and to identify administrative or operational inefficiencies that can be improved.

Requires the transportation accountability board, created in House Bill No., to conduct a thorough review of administrative practices of each county, each city with a population of five thousand or greater, and each transit district. The purpose of the review is to clarify operational costs and to identify administrative or operational inefficiencies that can be improved.
