Brief Description: Creating the Washington progress board.

HB 2489 - DIGEST

Finds that a Washington progress board is needed to: (1) Encourage the discussion and understanding of critical global and national economic trends that will affect the Washington economy in the coming decades;

(2) Formulate and submit to Washingtonians a strategy that describes and explains a vision for Washington's economic progress over the next twenty to thirty years; and

(3) Submit to the legislature, for enactment, goals for Washington's progress, including measurable indicators of the achievement of those goals, as provided for in this act.
