

4206

Sponsor(s): Representatives Doumit, Buck, H. Sommers, G. Chandler, Morris, Clements, Kessler, Cox, Tokuda, Ballasiotes, Fisher, Lisk, Dickerson, D. Schmidt, Kenney, Mulliken, McIntire, O'Brien, Kagi, Gombosky, Edmonds and Edwards

Brief Description: Requiring the legislature to establish a method for approving initiatives.

HJR 4206 - DIGEST

Requires the legislature to establish by statute a method for determining whether a measure initiated by the people has a substantial fiscal impact on the state or on any local government. If a measure initiated by the people is determined to have a substantial fiscal impact, then the measure takes effect and becomes the law if it is approved by sixty percent of the votes cast thereon.