Brief Description: Authorizing placement of United States flags on school buses.

SB 6389-S - DIGEST

(DIGEST AS ENACTED)

Declares that school districts shall not be prohibited from placing or displaying a flag of the United States on a school bus when it does not interfere with the vehicle's safe operation. The state superintendent of public instruction shall adopt and enforce rules not inconsistent with the law of this state to govern the size, placement, and display of the flag of the United States on all school buses.
