
HOUSE BILL 2624

State of Washington

58th Legislature

2004 Regular Session

By Representatives Wood and Condotta; by request of Department of Labor & Industries

Read first time 01/19/2004. Referred to Committee on Commerce & Labor.

1 AN ACT Relating to providing the department of labor and industries
2 with the rule-making authority to address recommendations of the 3 elevator safety advisory committee relating to the licensing of private 4 residence conveyance work; amending RCW 70.87.240; adding a new section
5 to chapter 70.87 RCW; and creating a new section.

6 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

7 NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that individuals
8 performing conveyance work on private residence conveyances must be 9 licensed by the department of labor and industries. However, the 10 licensing requirements for this type of work need not be to the same 11 level as those established for conveyance work in circumstances where 12 the general public has access to the conveyances. The legislature 13 further finds that the department of labor and industries should be 14 given the authority to develop the licensing requirements for this type 15 of work using the normal rule-making process established under chapter
16 34.05 RCW. Lastly, the legislature finds that private residence 17 conveyance maintenance work that is performed by an owner or at the 18 direction of the owner is exempt from licensing if the owner resides in

1 the residence at which the conveyance is located and the conveyance is 2 not accessible to the general public.

3 Sec. 2. RCW 70.87.240 and 2003 c 143 s 2 are each amended to read 4 as follows:

5 (1) Any person, firm, public agency, or company wishing to engage 6 in the business of performing conveyance work within the state must 7 apply for an elevator contractor license with the department on a form
8 provided by the department and be a registered general or specialty
9 contractor under chapter 18.27 RCW.

10 (2) Except as provided by RCW 70.87.270, any person wishing to 11 perform conveyance work within the state must apply for an elevator 12 mechanic license with the department on a form provided by the 13 department.

14 (3) An elevator contractor license may not be granted to any person
15 or firm who does not possess the following qualifications:

16 (a) Five years' experience performing conveyance work, as verified
17 by current and previous elevator contractors licensed to do business; 18 or

19 (b) Satisfactory completion of a written examination administered
20 by the department on this chapter and the rules adopted under this 21 chapter.

22 (4) Except as provided in subsection (5) of this section, section
23 3 of this act, and RCW 70.87.245, an elevator mechanic license may not 24 be granted to any person who does not possess the following
25 qualifications:

26 (a) An acceptable combination of documented experience and 27 education credits: Not less than three years' experience performing 28 conveyance work, as verified by current and previous employers licensed 29 to do business in this state or public agency employers; and

30 (b) Satisfactory completion of a written examination administered
31 by the department on this chapter and the rules adopted under this 32 chapter.

33 (5) Any person who furnishes the department with acceptable proof 34 that he or she has performed conveyance work in the category for which 35 a license is sought shall upon making application for a license and 36 paying the license fee receive a license without an examination. The 37 person must have:

1 (a) Worked without direct and immediate supervision for a general
2 or specialty contractor registered under chapter 18.27 RCW and engaged
3 in the business of performing conveyance work in this state. This 4 employment may not be less than each and all of the three years
5 immediately before March 1, 2004. The person must apply within ninety 6 days after the effective date of rules adopted under this chapter
7 establishing licensing requirements;

8 (b) Worked without direct and immediate supervision for an owner
9 exempt from licensing requirements under RCW 70.87.270 or a public
10 agency as an individual responsible for maintenance of conveyances
11 owned by the owner exempt from licensing requirements under RCW
12 70.87.270 or the public agency. This employment may not be less than 13 each and all of the three years immediately before March 1, 2004. The 14 person must apply within ninety days after the effective date of rules
15 adopted under this chapter establishing licensing requirements;

16 (c) Obtained a certificate of completion and successfully passed
17 the mechanic examination of a nationally recognized training program
18 for the elevator industry such as the national elevator industry
19 educational program or its equivalent; or

20 (d) Obtained a certificate of completion of an apprenticeship
21 program for an elevator mechanic, having standards substantially equal
22 to those of this chapter, and registered with the Washington state
23 apprenticeship and training council.

24 (6) A license must be issued to an individual holding a valid
25 license from a state having entered into a reciprocal agreement with 26 the department and having standards substantially equal to those of 27 this chapter, upon application and without examination.

28 NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 70.87 RCW
29 to read as follows:

30 (1) The department shall, by rule, establish licensing requirements
31 for conveyance work performed on private residence conveyances. These 32 rules shall include an exemption from licensing for maintenance work on 33 private residence conveyances performed by an owner or at the direction 34 of the owner, provided the owner resides in the residence at which the 35 conveyance is located and the conveyance is not accessible to the

1 general public.

2 (2) The rules adopted under this section take effect July 1, 2004.
