Secretary of State
State of Washington

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL 1028

AS AMENDED BY THE SENATE

Passed Legislature - 2003 Regular Session

State of Washington 58th Legislature 2003 Regular Session

By House Committee on Juvenile Justice & Family Law (originally sponsored by Representatives Dickerson, Delvin, Kagi, O'Brien, Kenney and Upthegrove)

READ FIRST TIME 02/04/03.

1 AN ACT Relating to a study of proven intervention and prevention 2 programs for at-risk youth; creating a new section; and providing an 3 expiration date.

4 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

5 NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The joint legislative audit and review
6 committee shall:

7 (1) Review and analyze research, including research conducted by 8 the Washington state institute for public policy, to identify programs 9 that have been proven effective at (a) preserving families and (b) 10 reducing crime committed by youth who are eleven to eighteen years of 11 age;

12 (2) Report on the research findings about costs, benefits, and 13 outcomes of the programs identified in subsection (1) of this section 14 that (a) have been successfully implemented by local jurisdictions in 15 Washington state; (b) have resulted in documented and measurable
16 positive outcomes related to family preservation and juvenile crime
17 reduction in Washington state; and (c) have resulted in cost savings, 18 or were cost neutral, to the state budget;

1 (3) Report on the research findings about the role that financial 2 and other incentives have played in stimulating local government
3 investment in the programs identified in subsection (1) of this 4 section; and

5 (4) Evaluate, recommend, and report where appropriate, options for 6 financial and other incentives designed to encourage local government
7 investment in the programs identified in subsection (1) of this 8 section. Among the incentives that may be considered are those that 9 reimburse local jurisdictions for a portion of the savings that accrue 10 to the state as the result of local government investment in such 11 programs.

12 In carrying out this review, the joint legislative audit and review 13 committee may consider using a sample of local communities and local 14 governments, but should be attentive to regional differences within the 15 state.

16 The committee shall submit an interim report to the appropriate
17 policy and fiscal committees of the legislature by September 1, 2004,
18 and a final report to the same committees by September 1, 2005.

19 This section expires December 31, 2005.
