

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO.4726, by Representatives Chase and Kagi

WHEREAS, The Washington State Legislature recognizes and applauds the achievements and contributions of its citizens; and

WHEREAS, Janeen Cook's family are longtime residents of Shoreline, Washington; and

WHEREAS, Janeen Cook's family has a history of contributions to the community, starting with her grandfather who owned a sawmill on Echo Lake; and

WHEREAS, Janeen Cook generously served her community by volunteering at the Shoreline Public Library every week, tirelessly organizing the library's yearly book sale, and serving in the neighborhood storefront for the Shoreline Police Department; and

WHEREAS, Her commitment to peace, fairness, and harmony guided her to be one of the originators of the Sound Non-Violent Opposition to War, and a drum major for peace and justice; and

WHEREAS, Janeen Cook exemplified the ideal of civic-mindedness in her service to the 32nd district and was well-known and respected by the Democrats in that district; and

WHEREAS, Janeen Cook was a dedicated and loyal employee of US West for over thirty years; and

WHEREAS, Janeen Cook's life of continued civic engagement and community involvement is an example to all Washingtonians;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives celebrate and honor the life of Janeen Cook and extend to her family: Her husband, John; her son, Michael; her daughter-in-law, Amy; and her beloved granddaughter, Cameron, our sincere sympathy and condolences; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be immediately transmitted by the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives to the family of Janeen Cook.

I hereby certify this to be a true and correct copy of Resolution 4726 adopted by the House of Representatives
