34 Sec. 2. RCW 9.92.060 and 1996 c 298 s 5 are each amended to read

35 as follows:

36 (1) Whenever any person is convicted of any crime except murder,

37 burglary in the first degree, arson in the first degree, robbery, rape

1 of a child, or rape, the superior court may, in its discretion, at the 2 time of imposing sentence upon such person, direct that such sentence 3 be stayed and suspended until otherwise ordered by the superior court, 4 and that the sentenced person be placed under the charge of a community 5 corrections officer employed by the department of corrections, or if 6 the county elects to assume responsibility for the supervision of all 7 superior court misdemeanor probationers a probation officer employed 8 or contracted for by the county, upon such terms as the superior court 9 may determine.

10 (2) As a condition to suspension of sentence, the superior court
11 shall require the payment of the penalty assessment required by RCW 12 7.68.035. In addition, the superior court may require the convicted 13 person to make such monetary payments, on such terms as the superior 14 court deems appropriate under the circumstances, as are necessary: (a) 15 To comply with any order of the court for the payment of family 16 support; (b) to make restitution to any person or persons who may have 17 suffered loss or damage by reason of the commission of the crime in 18 question or when the offender pleads guilty to a lesser offense or 19 fewer offenses and agrees with the prosecutor's recommendation that the 20 offender be required to pay restitution to a victim of an offense or 21 offenses which are not prosecuted pursuant to a plea agreement; (c) to 22 pay any fine imposed and not suspended and the court or other costs 23 incurred in the prosecution of the case, including reimbursement of the 24 state for costs of extradition if return to this state by extradition 25 was required; and (d) to contribute to a county or interlocal drug 26 fund.

27 (3) As a condition of the suspended sentence, the superior court 28 may order the probationer to report to the secretary of corrections or 29 such officer as the secretary may designate and as a condition of the 30 probation to follow the instructions of the secretary. If the county 31 legislative authority has elected to assume responsibility for the 32 supervision of superior court misdemeanor probationers within its 33 jurisdiction, the superior court misdemeanor probationer shall report 34 to a probation officer employed or contracted for by the county. In 35 cases where a superior court misdemeanor probationer is sentenced in 36 one county, but resides within another county, there must be provisions 37 for the probationer to report to the agency having supervision 38 responsibility for the probationer's county of residence.

1 (4) If restitution to the victim has been ordered under subsection 2 (2)(b) of this section and the superior court has ordered supervision, 3 the officer supervising the probationer shall make a reasonable effort 4 to ascertain whether restitution has been made as ordered. If the 5 superior court has ordered supervision and restitution has not been 6 made, the officer shall inform the prosecutor of that violation of the 7 terms of the suspended sentence not less than three months prior to the 8 termination of the suspended sentence.

9 (5) The provisions of RCW 9.94A.501 apply to sentences imposed
10 under this section.

11 Sec. 3. RCW 9.95.204 and 1996 c 298 s 1 are each amended to read
12 as follows:

13 (1) When a superior court places a defendant convicted of a 14 misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor on probation and orders supervision 15 under RCW 9.92.060 or 9.95.210, the department of corrections has 16 initial responsibility for supervision of that defendant.

17 (2) A county legislative authority may assume responsibility for 18 the supervision of all defendants within its jurisdiction who have been 19 convicted of a misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor and sentenced to 20 probation by a superior court. The assumption of responsibility shall 21 be made by contract with the department of corrections on a biennial 22 basis.

23 (3) If a county assumes supervision responsibility, the county 24 shall supervise all superior court misdemeanant probationers within 25 that county for the duration of the biennium, as set forth in the 26 contract with the department of corrections.

27 (4) A contract between a county legislative authority and the 28 department of corrections for the transfer of supervision 29 responsibility must include, at a minimum, the following provisions:

30 (a) The county's agreement to supervise all misdemeanant
31 probationers who are sentenced by a superior court within that county 32 and who reside within that county;

33 (b) A reciprocal agreement regarding the supervision of superior 34 court misdemeanant probationers sentenced in one county but who reside 35 in another county;

36 (c) The county's agreement to comply with the minimum standards for

1 classification and supervision of offenders as required under RCW 2 9.95.206;

3 (d) The amount of funds available from the department of 4 corrections to the county for supervision of superior court
5 misdemeanor probationers, calculated according to a formula 6 established by the department of corrections;

7 (e) A method for the payment of funds by the department of 8 corrections to the county;

9 (f) The county's agreement that any funds received by the county
10 under the contract will be expended only to cover costs of supervision 11 of superior court misdemeanor probationers;

12 (g) The county's agreement to account to the department of 13 corrections for the expenditure of all funds received under the 14 contract and to submit to audits for compliance with the supervision 15 standards and financial requirements of this section;

16 (h) Provisions regarding rights and remedies in the event of a 17 possible breach of contract or default by either party; and

18 (i) Provisions allowing for voluntary termination of the contract 19 by either party, with good cause, after sixty days' written notice.

20 (5) If the contract between the county and the department of 21 corrections is terminated for any reason, the department of corrections 22 shall reassume responsibility for supervision of superior court 23 misdemeanor probationers within that county. In such an event, the 24 department of corrections retains any and all rights and remedies 25 available by law and under the contract.

26 (6) The state of Washington, the department of corrections and its 27 employees, community corrections officers, and volunteers who assist 28 community corrections officers are not liable for any harm caused by 29 the actions of a superior court misdemeanor probationer who is under 30 the supervision of a county. A county, its probation department and 31 employees, probation officers, and volunteers who assist probation 32 officers are not liable for any harm caused by the actions of a 33 superior court misdemeanor probationer who is under the supervision of 34 the department of corrections. This subsection applies regardless of 35 whether the supervising entity is in compliance with the standards of 36 supervision at the time of the misdemeanor probationer's actions.

37 (7) The state of Washington, the department of corrections and its 38 employees, community corrections officers, any county under contract

1 with the department of corrections pursuant to this section and its 2 employees, probation officers, and volunteers who assist community 3 corrections officers and probation officers in the superior court 4 misdemeanor probation program are not liable for civil damages
5 resulting from any act or omission in the rendering of superior court 6 misdemeanor probation activities unless the act or omission
7 constitutes gross negligence. For purposes of this section, 8 "volunteers" is defined according to RCW 51.12.035.

9 (8) The provisions of RCW 9.94A.501 apply to sentences imposed
10 under this section.

11 Sec. 4. RCW 9.95.210 and 1996 c 298 s 3 are each amended to read
12 as follows:

13 (1) In granting probation, the superior court may suspend the 14 imposition or the execution of the sentence and may direct that the 15 suspension may continue upon such conditions and for such time as it 16 shall designate, not exceeding the maximum term of sentence or two 17 years, whichever is longer.

18 (2) In the order granting probation and as a condition thereof, the 19 superior court may in its discretion imprison the defendant in the 20 county jail for a period not exceeding one year and may fine the 21 defendant any sum not exceeding the statutory limit for the offense 22 committed, and court costs. As a condition of probation, the superior 23 court shall require the payment of the penalty assessment required by 24 RCW 7.68.035. The superior court may also require the defendant to 25 make such monetary payments, on such terms as it deems appropriate 26 under the circumstances, as are necessary: (a) To comply with any 27 order of the court for the payment of family support; (b) to make 28 restitution to any person or persons who may have suffered loss or 29 damage by reason of the commission of the crime in question or when the 30 offender pleads guilty to a lesser offense or fewer offenses and agrees 31 with the prosecutor's recommendation that the offender be required to 32 pay restitution to a victim of an offense or offenses which are not 33 prosecuted pursuant to a plea agreement; (c) to pay such fine as may be 34 imposed and court costs, including reimbursement of the state for costs 35 of extradition if return to this state by extradition was required; (d) 36 following consideration of the financial condition of the person 37 subject to possible electronic monitoring, to pay for the costs of 1 electronic monitoring if that monitoring was required by the court as 2 a condition of release from custody or as a condition of probation; (e) 3 to contribute to a county or interlocal drug fund; and (f) to make 4 restitution to a public agency for the costs of an emergency response 5 under RCW 38.52.430, and may require bonds for the faithful observance 6 of any and all conditions imposed in the probation.

7 (3) The superior court shall order restitution in all cases where 8 the victim is entitled to benefits under the crime victims' 9 compensation act, chapter 7.68 RCW. If the superior court does not 10 order restitution and the victim of the crime has been determined to be 11 entitled to benefits under the crime victims' compensation act, the 12 department of labor and industries, as administrator of the crime 13 victims' compensation program, may petition the superior court within 14 one year of imposition of the sentence for entry of a restitution 15 order. Upon receipt of a petition from the department of labor and 16 industries, the superior court shall hold a restitution hearing and 17 shall enter a restitution order.

18 (4) In granting probation, the superior court may order the 19 probationer to report to the secretary of corrections or such officer 20 as the secretary may designate and as a condition of the probation to 21 follow the instructions of the secretary. If the county legislative 22 authority has elected to assume responsibility for the supervision of 23 superior court misdemeanor probationers within its jurisdiction, the 24 superior court misdemeanor probationer shall report to a probation 25 officer employed or contracted for by the county. In cases where a 26 superior court misdemeanor probationer is sentenced in one county, but 27 resides within another county, there must be provisions for the 28 probationer to report to the agency having supervision responsibility 29 for the probationer's county of residence.

30 (5) If the probationer has been ordered to make restitution and the 31 superior court has ordered supervision, the officer supervising the 32 probationer shall make a reasonable effort to ascertain whether 33 restitution has been made. If the superior court has ordered 34 supervision and restitution has not been made as ordered, the officer 35 shall inform the prosecutor of that violation of the terms of probation 36 not less than three months prior to the termination of the probation 37 period. The secretary of corrections will promulgate rules and 38 regulations for the conduct of the person during the term of probation.

1 For defendants found guilty in district court, like functions as the 2 secretary performs in regard to probation may be performed by probation 3 officers employed for that purpose by the county legislative authority 4 of the county wherein the court is located.

5 (6) The provisions of RCW 9.94A.501 apply to sentences imposed
6 under this section.
