Brief Description: Revising voyeurism laws.

HB 1030 - DIGEST

Declares that a person commits the crime of voyeurism in the second degree if, under circumstances not constituting voyeurism in the first degree, for the purpose of arousing or gratifying the sexual desire of any person, he or she knowingly views, photographs, or films another person under or through the clothing being worn by that other person, without that person's consent and in a manner or under circumstances that violate a reasonable expectation of privacy.

Provides that voyeurism in the first degree is a class C felony, and voyeurism in the second degree is a gross misdemeanor.
