Brief Description: Suspending accrual of interest for financial obligations during total confinement.

HB 1514-S - DIGEST

(DIGEST OF PROPOSED 1ST SUBSTITUTE)

Provides that, with respect to financial obligations imposed for offenses committed on or after July 1, 2003, interest shall not accrue during any period of time the offender is in total confinement in a correctional or state correctional institution as defined in RCW 9.94.049, an out-of-state correctional institution, or a federal correctional institution.

Declares that, for purposes of this act, total confinement shall not include any period of total confinement that is due to a violation of community custody, community placement, or community supervision.
