Brief Description: Requiring classification of offenders into risk categories.

HB 2233 - DIGEST

Requires that, when the department performs a risk assessment pursuant to RCW 9.94A.500, or to determine a person's conditions of supervision, the risk assessment shall classify the offender into one of at least four risk categories.

Directs the department to supervise every offender: (1) Sentenced to a term of community custody, community placement, or community supervision whose risk assessment places that offender in one of the two highest risk categories;

(2) Sentenced to a term of community custody, community placement, or community supervision, regardless of the offender's risk category, for a violent offense, a sex offense, a crime against persons as defined in RCW 9.94A.411, burglary in the first degree, burglary in the second degree, or domestic violence as defined in RCW 10.99.020; or

(3) Sentenced to a term of community custody, community placement, or community supervision, regardless of the offender's risk category, who has a prior conviction for a violent offense, a sex offense, a crime against persons as defined in RCW 9.94A.411, burglary in the first degree, burglary in the second degree, or domestic violence as defined in RCW 10.99.020.

Authorizes the department to supervise any offender sentenced to a term of community custody, community placement, or community supervision whose risk assessment places that offender in any risk category other than the two highest and who is not required to be supervised under this act.
