

2789

Sponsor(s): Representatives Schual-Berke, Armstrong, Chase, Tom, Hunt, Jarrett, Cooper, Hankins, Cody, Darneille, Edwards and Clibborn

Brief Description: Permitting health information and disease prevention instruction.

HB 2789 - DIGEST

Declares an intent to enhance the healthy development of young people in Washington state by taking opportunities to provide them with information needed to help reduce rates of teen pregnancy, sexually transmitted diseases, and HIV infection.

Requires the department of health to work in consultation with the office of the superintendent of public instruction to develop guidelines for health information and disease prevention instruction under of this act.