

3052

Sponsor(s): Representatives McMahan, Moeller, Romero and Lovick

Brief Description: Ensuring that the voting rights of persons under guardianship be preserved except under very limited circumstances.

HB 3052 - DIGEST

Finds that the state has a compelling interest in ensuring that those who cast a ballot understand the nature and effect of voting is an individual decision, and that any restriction of voting rights imposed through guardianship proceedings should be narrowly tailored to meet this compelling interest.