

5623

Sponsor(s): Senators Keiser, Swecker, Haugen and Poulsen

Brief Description: Regulating planning and siting of commercial aviation facilities.

SB 5623 - DIGEST

Provides that, in addition to any other powers, duties, and functions as provided under chapter 47.68 RCW, the aviation division of the department shall plan and site new commercial aviation facilities in Washington state. The responsibility of the division under this provision is to make airport siting recommendations and decisions that integrate both state and regional commercial aviation needs.