2 representative; and amending RCW 43.332.010.

3 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

4 Sec. 1. RCW 43.332.010 and 2003 c 346 s 2 are each amended to read 5 as follows:

6 (1) The office of the Washington state trade representative is 7 created in the office of the governor. ((The office)) A trade policy
8 professional shall serve the office as the state's official liaison
9 with foreign governments on trade matters. The state trade 10 representative shall be appointed by the governor with consent of the 11 senate.

12 (2) The office shall:

13 (a) Work with the department of community, trade, and economic 14 development, the department of agriculture, and other appropriate state 15 agencies, and within the agencies' existing resources, review and 16 analyze proposed and enacted international trade agreements and provide 17 an assessment of the impact of the proposed or enacted agreement on 18 Washington's businesses and firms;

1 (b) Provide input to the office of the United States trade
2 representative in the development of international trade, commodity,
3 and direct investment policies that reflect the concerns of the state
4 of Washington;

5 (c) Serve as liaison to the legislature on matters of trade policy
6 oversight including, but not limited to, updates to the legislature 7 regarding the status of trade negotiations, trade litigation, and the 8 impacts of trade policy on Washington state businesses;

9 (d) Work with the international trade division of the department of 10 community, trade, and economic development and the international 11 marketing program of the Washington state department of agriculture to 12 develop a statewide strategy designed to increase the export of 13 Washington goods and services, particularly goods and services from 14 small and medium-sized businesses; ((and))

15 (e) Promote the governor's trade efforts by initiating, organizing, 16 and coordinating state trade missions; and

17 (f) Conduct other activities the governor deems necessary to 18 promote international trade and foreign investment within the state.

19 (3) The office shall prepare and submit an annual report on its 20 activities under subsection (2) of this section to the governor and 21 appropriate committees of the legislature.

22 (4) For any period during which the position of state trade
23 representative is vacant, funds provided to the office of the governor 24 for that position shall revert to the general fund.
