

HB 1956 - H AMD 101

By Representative Dunn

WITHDRAWN 3/9/2007

1 Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the
2 following:

3 "NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 49.60
4 RCW to read as follows:

5 (1) It is an unfair practice for any person, whether acting for
6 himself, herself, or another, to discriminate in the rental of a
7 dwelling to, or to refuse to negotiate or enter into a rental
8 agreement with, a person because of the person's lawful source of 9 income.

10 (2) This section does not:

11 (a) Apply to rental transactions involving the sharing of a
12 dwelling, or the rental or subleasing of a portion of a dwelling,
13 when the dwelling is to be occupied by the owner or sublessor;

14 (b) Affect the rights, responsibilities, and remedies of 15 landlords and tenants under chapter 59.18 or 59.20 RCW, except to 16 the extent of inconsistencies with the nondiscrimination
17 requirements of this section; or

18 (c) Limit the applicability of RCW 49.60.215 relating to unfair
19 practices in places of public accommodation or RCW 49.60.222
20 through 49.60.227 relating to unfair practices in real estate
21 transactions.

22 (3) For the purposes of this section, "lawful source of 23 income" means verifiable legal income, including income derived
24 from employment, social security, supplemental security income,
25 other retirement programs, child support, alimony, and any federal,
26 state, or local government or nonprofit-administered benefit or
27 subsidy program, including rental assistance programs, public
28 assistance, and general assistance programs. "

29 Correct the title.

EFFECT: Limits the prohibition against discrimination based on lawful income to rental transactions, instead of all real estate transactions.

Exempts from the prohibition against discrimination those rental transactions involving sharing or subleasing an owner-occupied dwelling, and does not affect landlord-tenant rights and responsibilities unrelated to discrimination or limit requirements related to prohibiting discrimination in public accommodations or in other real estate transactions.
