Background:

Under the Gambling Act (Act), the Washington State Gambling Commission (WSGC) regulates wagering on activities such as social card games, bingo, raffles, amusement games, punch boards, pull-tabs, and fund-raising events. Other activities, such as golfing sweepstakes and turkey shoots, are not "gambling" requiring a license as long as conducted in the specified manner. Some activities, such as fishing derbies, are exempt from the Act.

Several sections of the Act address minors and gambling. A proviso in a law allowing dice rolls and coin bets to determine who will pay for food, drink, or music prohibits minors from engaging in wagering activities permitted by the Act. Punch board and pull-tab chances may not be sold to minors. School-age minors are restricted from some amusement game locations and games during school hours and after certain hours.

The WSGC has also adopted a rule generally prohibiting minors from gambling. Exceptions allow minors to:

- play licensed bingo games if accompanied by an adult family member;
- play bingo at agricultural fairs or school carnivals;
- play amusement games; and
- sell raffle tickets for an organization whose primary purpose is the development of youth.

A licensee who allows minors to illegally gamble is subject to sanction. No penalty exists, however, for minors who illegally participate in gambling.

A civil infraction is a penalty for a minor offense. Monetary penalties range from $25 to $500. A minor who purchases or possesses cigarettes, for example, commits a class 3 civil infraction and is subject to a fine up to $50 or up to four hours of community restitution, or both. Persons under 21 who possess liquor are guilty of a gross misdemeanor and persons under 18 who purchase a lottery ticket are guilty of a misdemeanor.

The Liquor Control Board may authorize employers to conduct in-house controlled purchase programs for purposes of employee training and employer self-compliance checks.

Summary of Bill:

A new section addresses minors and gambling. It is illegal for minors to play in authorized gambling activities including, but not limited to, punch boards, pull-tabs, card games, and fund-raising events. Minors may participate in bingo and amusement games but only as provided by WSGC rule.

A minor who attempts to, or engages in prohibited gambling commits a class 2 civil infraction, and is subject to a fine of up to $125, up to four hours of community restitution, and court costs.

A gambling activity employer may conduct an in-house controlled purchase program for the purposes of employee training and employer self-compliance checks. Employees must receive a written description of the program, which must state the actions an employer may take as a consequence of an employee's failure to comply with company policies regarding unauthorized persons engaging in gambling activities during a controlled purchase program. An employee who commits a violation under a controlled purchase program may not be subject to criminal or administrative prosecution. A minor who participates in a controlled purchase program is not subject to a civil infraction.
