Brief Summary of Engrossed Substitute Bill

- Allows auction companies also licensed as motor vehicle dealers to sell vessels up to 25 feet long without registering as a vessel dealer.

Hearing Date: 3/15/07

Staff: Joan Elgee (786-7106).

Background:

An auction company is any legal or commercial entity that sells goods or real estate at auction. Auction companies must obtain a license from the Department of Licensing (Department) by paying a registration fee, filing a surety bond or other security, and meeting other requirements. Auctioneers selling motor vehicles must also obtain a motor vehicle dealer license and those selling vessels must register as a vessel dealer.

A vessel dealer is a person, partnership, association, or corporation engaged in the business of selling watercraft in the state. Vessel dealers must register with the Department by paying a registration fee and filing a surety bond. Vessel dealer duties include making application for title and maintaining a record of all vessels purchased or consigned and sold by the vessel dealer.

Summary of Bill:

A licensed auction company that is also licensed as a motor vehicle dealer may auction all vessels that a vessel dealer may sell, without registering (pay fee and obtain bond) as a vessel dealer, so long as the sale of vessels is incidental to the auction company's primary source of business and
