Passed Legislature - 2007 Regular Session

State of Washington

60th Legislature

2007 Regular Session

By Representatives Pedersen, Ross, Lovick, Bailey, Hunt, Hasegawa, Pettigrew, Skinner, Flannigan, Darneille, Roberts, Newhouse, Hankins, Walsh, Appleton, Santos, Lantz, McCoy, Rodne, Schual-Berke, Ormsby, Upthegrove, Morrell, Kessler, Williams, Kenney and McDermott

- 1 AN ACT Relating to a Washington state day of remembrance for
- 2 Juneteenth; amending RCW 1.16.050; and creating a new section.
- 3 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:
- 4 NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature recognizes that on June 19,
- 5 1865, Union soldiers landed at Galveston, Texas with news that the
- 6 Civil War had ended and the slaves were now free; that this was two and
- 7 a half years after President Lincoln signed the Emancipation
- 8 Proclamation on January 1, 1863; that the end of slavery brought on new
- 9 challenges and realities in establishing a previously nonexistent
- 10 status for African-Americans in the United States; that racism and
- 11 continued inequality is the legacy of slavery and acknowledging it is
- 12 the first step in its eradication; and that since 1980 June 19th has
- 13 been celebrated as Juneteenth across the United States as a day for people to come together in the spirit of reconciliation to commemorate

- 15 the contributions of African-Americans to this country's history and
- 16 culture.

- 17 The legislature declares that an annual day of recognition be
- 18 observed in remembrance of the day the slaves realized they were free
- 19 as a reminder that individual rights and freedoms must never be denied.

Each employee of the state or its political subdivisions may select the day on which the employee desires to take the additional holiday provided for herein after consultation with the employer pursuant to guidelines to be promulgated by rule of the appropriate personnel authority, or in the case of local government by ordinance or resolution of the legislative authority.

If any of the above specified state legal holidays are also federal legal holidays but observed on different dates, only the state legal holidays shall be recognized as a paid legal holiday for employees of the state and its political subdivisions except that for port districts and the law enforcement and public transit employees of municipal corporations, either the federal or the state legal holiday, but in no case both, may be recognized as a paid legal holiday for employees.

Whenever any legal holiday, other than Sunday, falls upon a Sunday, the following Monday shall be the legal holiday.
