

HB 1060 - DIGEST

Provides that, if a project using alternative energy resources is first denied by a local government, the council shall not accept an application for a similar project in a similar geographic area for two years from the date of denial by the local government.