

HB 1763 - DIGEST

Finds that the storage of large amounts of unencrypted financial information or means of identification on portable electronic data storage devices and the transportation of such devices away from the workplace contribute to identity crimes.

Declares an intent to reduce the incidence of identity crimes by imposing civil liability in certain cases where wrongful access to financial information or means of identification from a portable electronic data storage device that has been removed from the workplace leads to an identity crime.