

HB 2307 - DIGEST

Finds that inadequately mitigated noise related to roadway construction projects adversely affects citizens' quality of life and property value. The legislature further finds that existing policies and practices fail to adequately mitigate such noise.

Declares that the purpose of this act is to establish more stringent standards for noise mitigation as it relates to certain transportation projects, thereby providing additional protection for and increased enjoyment of our communities.