

HB 2610 - DIGEST

Provides that, except as otherwise provided in law, the county assessor is not required to value property exempt under chapter 84.36 RCW; however, the county assessor may value such property at the assessor's discretion, or if required for the purposes of special or administrative assessments.