

HB 3358 - DIGEST

Provides that before a person holding a patent on a transgenic organism may enter upon any land owned by a farmer for the purpose of obtaining crop samples to determine whether breach of contract or patent infringement has occurred, the person holding the patent shall notify the farmer in writing of the allegation that breach of contract or patent infringement has occurred and obtain the written permission of the farmer.