

SB 5065 - DIGEST

Declares that "interchange fee" means the fee a merchant's financial institution pays to a cardholder's financial institution when a cardholder uses a credit card or debit card as payment during a retail transaction.

Declares that financial institutions may not charge interchange fees that are more than one and one-half percent of the total cost of the retail transaction.