

SB 5673 - DIGEST

Declares that, pursuant to this act, the director or the director's designee may distribute money appropriated to pay claims in excess of one thousand dollars for damages to tangible personal property caused by big game in an amount of up to ten thousand dollars per claim. Damages payable under this provision must be based on the fair market value of the tangible personal property, and shall be paid only to the owner of the personal property at the time of damage, without assignment.
