"PART I. NOTICE AND RIGHT TO CURE

4 Sec. 1. RCW 64.50.010 and 2002 c 323 s 2 are each amended to read 5 as follows:

6 Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in 7 this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Action" means any civil lawsuit or action in contract or tort 8 9 for damages or indemnity brought against a construction professional to 10 assert a claim, whether by complaint, counterclaim, or cross-claim, for 11 damage or the loss of use of real or personal property caused by a defect in the construction of a residence or in the substantial remodel 12 of a residence. "Action" does not include any civil action in tort 13 14 alleging personal injury or wrongful death to a person or persons 15 resulting from a construction defect.

16 (2) "Association" means an association, master association, or 17 subassociation as defined and provided for in RCW 64.34.020(4), 18 64.34.276, 64.34.278, and 64.38.010(1).

19 (3) "Claimant" means a homeowner or association who asserts a claim 20 against a construction professional concerning a defect in the 21 construction of a residence or in the substantial remodel of a 22 residence.

23 (4) "Construction professional" means an architect, builder, 24 builder vendor, contractor, subcontractor, engineer, or inspector, limited to, a dealer as defined in RCW 25 including, but not 26 64.34.020(((12))) and a declarant as defined in RCW 64.34.020(((13))), 27 performing or furnishing the design, supervision, inspection, 28 construction, or observation of the construction of any improvement to real property, whether operating as a sole proprietor, partnership, corporation, or other business entity.

3 (5) "Homeowner" means: (a) Any person, company, firm, partnership, 4 corporation, or association who contracts with a construction 5 professional for the construction, sale, or construction and sale of a 6 residence; and (b) an "association" as defined in this section. 7 "Homeowner" includes, but is not limited to, a subsequent purchaser of 8 a residence from any homeowner.

9 (6) "Residence" means a single-family house, duplex, triplex, 10 quadraplex, or a unit in a multiunit residential structure in which 11 title to each individual unit is transferred to the owner under a 12 condominium or cooperative system, and shall include common elements as 13 defined in RCW 64.34.020(6) and common areas as defined in RCW 14 64.38.010(4).

15 (7) "Response notice" means a written response provided by a 16 construction professional under RCW 64.50.020(2).

17 (8) "Serve" or "service" means personal service or delivery by 18 certified mail to the last known address of the addressee.

19 (((8))) (9) "Substantial remodel" means a remodel of a residence, 20 for which the total cost exceeds one-half of the assessed value of the 21 residence for property tax purposes at the time the contract for the 22 remodel work was made.

23 Sec. 2. RCW 64.50.020 and 2002 c 323 s 3 are each amended to read 24 as follows:

(1) In every construction defect action brought against a construction professional, the claimant shall, no later than forty-five days before filing an action, serve written notice of claim on the construction professional. The notice of claim shall state that the claimant asserts a construction defect claim against the construction professional and shall describe the claim in reasonable detail sufficient to determine the general nature of the defect.

32 (2) Within twenty-one days after service of the notice of claim, 33 the construction professional shall serve a written response notice on 34 the claimant by registered mail or personal service. The written 35 response notice shall:

36 (a) Propose to inspect the residence that is the subject of the 37 claim, including a description of the scope of the inspection, and to 1 complete the inspection within a specified time frame. The proposal 2 shall include the statement that the construction professional shall, 3 based on the inspection, offer to remedy the defect, compromise by 4 payment, or dispute the claim;

5 (b) Offer to compromise and settle the claim by monetary payment 6 without inspection. A construction professional's offer under this 7 subsection (2)(b) to compromise and settle a homeowner's claim may 8 include, but is not limited to, an express offer to purchase the 9 claimant's residence that is the subject of the claim, and to pay the 10 claimant's reasonable relocation costs; or

(c) State that the construction professional disputes the claim and will neither remedy the construction defect nor compromise and settle the claim.

(3)(a) If the construction professional disputes the claim or does not respond to the claimant's notice of claim within the time stated in subsection (2) of this section, the claimant may bring an action against the construction professional for the claim described in the notice of claim without further notice.

(b) If the claimant rejects the ((inspection-proposal-or-the)) 19 settlement offer made by the construction professional pursuant to 20 subsection (2) of this section, the claimant shall serve written notice 21 22 of the claimant's rejection on the construction professional. After service of the rejection, the claimant may bring an action against the 23 24 construction professional for the construction defect claim described 25 in the notice of claim. If the construction professional has not received from the claimant, within thirty days after the claimant's 26 27 receipt of the construction professional's response, either an acceptance or rejection of the ((inspection proposal or)) settlement 28 offer, then at anytime thereafter the construction professional may 29 terminate the ((proposal or)) offer by serving written notice to the 30 31 claimant, and the claimant may thereafter bring an action against the 32 construction professional for the construction defect claim described in the notice of claim. 33

34 (4)(a) If the ((claimant-elects-to-allow-the)) construction 35 professional proposes to inspect ((in accordance with the construction 36 professional's-proposal)) pursuant to subsection (2)(a) of this 37 section, the claimant shall provide the construction professional and 1 its contractors or other agents reasonable access to the claimant's 2 residence during normal working hours to inspect the premises and the 3 claimed defect.

4 (b) Whether conducted by a third-party inspector or the 5 construction professional, the person conducting the inspection shall 6 produce a written report that describes the scope of the inspection, 7 the findings and results of the inspection, a description of the 8 additional construction necessary to remedy the defect described in the 9 claim, a timetable for the completion of such construction, and an 10 estimate of the costs of repair.

11 (c) Within fourteen days following completion of the inspection and 12 delivery of the inspection report, the construction professional shall 13 serve on the claimant:

(i) A written offer to remedy the construction defect at no cost to the claimant((, including a report of the scope of the inspection, the findings and results of the inspection, a description of the additional construction necessary to remedy the defect described in the claim, and a timetable for the completion of such construction));

(ii) A written offer to compromise and settle the claim by monetarypayment pursuant to subsection (2)(b) of this section; or 21 (iii) A written statement that the construction professional will22 not proceed further to remedy the defect.

23 (((c))) (d) If the construction professional does not proceed 24 further to remedy the construction defect within the agreed timetable, 25 or if the construction professional fails to comply with the provisions 26 of (((b))) (c) of this subsection, the claimant may bring an action 27 against the construction professional for the claim described in the 28 notice of claim without further notice.

29 (((d))) (e) If the claimant rejects the offer made by the 30 construction professional pursuant to (((b))) (c)(i) or (ii) of this 31 subsection to either remedy the construction defect or to compromise 32 and settle the claim by monetary payment, the claimant shall serve 33 written notice of the claimant's rejection on the construction 34 professional.

35 (f) After service of the rejection notice pursuant to (e) of this 36 subsection, the claimant may bring an action against the construction 37 professional for the construction defect claim described in the notice 38 of claim. If the construction professional has not received from the claimant, within thirty days after the claimant's receipt of the construction professional's response, either an acceptance or rejection of the offer made pursuant to (((b))) (c)(i) or (ii) of this subsection, then at anytime thereafter the construction professional may terminate the offer by serving written notice to the claimant.

(5)(a) Any claimant accepting the offer of a construction 6 7 professional to remedy the construction defect pursuant to subsection (((4)(b)(i))) (4)(c)(i) of this section shall do so by serving the 8 construction professional with a written notice of acceptance within a 9 10 reasonable time period after receipt of the offer, and no later than thirty days after receipt of the offer. The claimant shall provide the 11 12 construction professional and its contractors or other agents 13 reasonable access to the claimant's residence during normal working 14 hours to perform and complete the construction by the timetable stated in the offer. 15

(b) The claimant and construction professional may, by written mutual agreement, alter the extent of construction or the timetable for completion of construction stated in the offer, including, but not limited to, repair of additional defects.

20 (6) Any action commenced by a claimant prior to compliance with the 21 requirements of this section shall be subject to dismissal without 22 prejudice, and may not be recommenced until the claimant has complied 23 with the requirements of this section.

(7) Nothing in this section may be construed to prevent a claimant from commencing an action on the construction defect claim described in the notice of claim if the construction professional fails to perform the construction agreed upon, fails to remedy the defect, or fails to perform by the timetable agreed upon pursuant to subsection (2)(a) or (5) of this section.

(8) Prior to commencing any action with a court or the residential 30 31 construction board alleging a construction defect, or after the 32 dismissal of any action without prejudice pursuant to subsection (6) of this section, the claimant may amend the notice of claim to include 33 construction defects discovered after the service of the original 34 notice of claim, and must otherwise comply with the requirements of 35 this section for the additional claims. The service of an amended 36 37 notice of claim shall relate back to the original notice of claim for purposes of tolling statutes of limitations and repose. Claims for 38 defects discovered after the commencement or recommencement of an action may be added to such action only after providing notice to the construction professional of the defect and allowing for response under subsection (2) of this section.

PART II. RESIDENTIAL CONSTRUCTION BOARD AND CONSUMER EDUCATION OFFICE

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. For the purposes of sections 4 through 13 of this act, the following definitions apply unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

10 (1) "Board" means the residential construction board created under 11 section 4 of this act.

(2) "Contractor" means a person registered under chapter 18.27 RCW who performed services for the construction, alteration, or repair of a residence.

(3) "Mediator" means a person selected by the residentialconstruction board to investigate defect complaints under this chapter.

17 (4) "Owner" means a person that possesses an interest in a 18 residence or in land that is a residential site or has entered into a 19 contract for the purchase of an interest in the residence or land. 20 "Owner" includes, but is not limited to, a subsequent purchaser of a 21 residence from any owner.

(5) "Residence" means a single-family house, duplex, triplex, orquadraplex.

24 NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A residential construction board is created in the office of the attorney general. The board shall consist of 25 seven members, appointed by the governor. The governor shall appoint 26 initial members of the board to staggered terms of two to four years. 27 28 Thereafter, all members shall be appointed to full four-year terms. 29 Members of the board hold their office until successors are appointed. A vacancy is filled by appointment by the governor for the unexpired 30 portion of the term in which the vacancy occurs. Existing members of 31 the board may be reappointed for additional terms. The board shall 32 select from its members a chair, vice-chair, and any other officer the 33 34 board determines is necessary to perform its duties. The board shall 35 consist of:

(1) Three members possessing a minimum of ten years of experience in the construction of residences and directly, as employees or officers of a firm, registered under chapter 18.27 RCW;

4 (2) One member possessing a minimum of ten years of experience in 5 the remodeling of residences and directly, as employees or officers of 6 a firm, registered under chapter 18.27 RCW;

7

(3) One building inspector employed by a city or county; and 8 (4) Two members of the general public.

9 NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) The board shall form and manage a 10 consumer education office whose duties must include:

11 (a) Educating consumers about contracting for residential 12 construction services, including the requirements of chapter 18.27 RCW 13 and methods available to protect themselves against loss;

(b) Producing written and electronic consumer education materials about contracting for residential construction services and legal resources available to consumers;

(c) Creating a pamphlet explaining a homeowner's legal rights and remedies and provide contractors and other construction professionals with a downloadable version of the brochure to attach to contracts for purchase and sale of new residential real property or the substantial remodel of existing residential real property. The office shall periodically update this pamphlet;

(d) Identifying and working collaboratively with agencies and organizations who are already engaged in consumer education efforts in the area of residential construction, such as the department of labor and industries, the department of licensing, local governments, the construction industry, financial institutions, and other interested organizations and individuals, to increase outreach to consumers;

(e) Sharing consumer education materials with and serve as a resource for agencies and organizations who are already engaged in consumer education;

32 (f) Developing a uniform manner of receiving, cataloging, 33 analyzing, and responding to consumer complaints about residential 34 construction;

35 (g) Identifying which agencies and organizations are already 36 receiving complaints and coordinate with them to ensure that all 1 agencies and organizations are requesting the same information from 2 complaining consumers and that all consumers are referred to the 3 office;

(h) Entering into data-sharing agreements with the department of labor and industries, local governments, and other agencies with enforcement duties in residential construction to increase assistance to consumers and enforcement of construction-related laws; and 8 (i) Reporting to the legislature on an annual basis the total 9 number of complaints, the nature of the complaints, the monetary value 10 of the complaints, whether complaints have been resolved, and any other 11 information that the office deems relevant. The first report is due on 12 January 1, 2010, and subsequent reports are due on November 1st of each 13 year thereafter.

14 (2) The board shall:

(a) Manage a residential construction complaint resolution process consistent with the requirements of sections 7 through 13 of this act; and 18 (b) Report to the legislature on an annual basis any 19 recommendations for changes in law or rule to improve the quality of 20 residential home construction.

21 NEW_SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) The board shall solicit and review 22 qualifications for mediators based on the following standards:

23 (a) Minimum of ten years of experience in residential construction;

(b) Current contractors registration in the state or former contractors registration in the state, provided that the registration was not terminated by an action of the department of labor and industries; and

(c) Other qualifications the board may deem appropriate.

(2)(a) By a majority vote, the board shall select mediators that meet the qualifications of the board. There is no right of appeal of a selection decision made by the board. All qualified mediator names must be compiled into a single ranked list. Names of newly selected mediators must be added to the bottom of the list.

34 (b) Mediators may not be employees of the board or the state.
35 Mediators must be paid on a per case basis at a rate set by the board.

36 (c) Mediators may be removed from the list for any reason by a majority vote of the members of the board. There is no right of appeal of a removal decision made by the board.

3 NEW_SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) The board shall assign a mediator to 4 each complaint filed with the board. The board shall assign the 5 mediator from the top of the list of mediators approved by the board by 6 providing written notice to the mediator, owner, and contractor of the 7 assignment.

8 (2) A mediator may reject an assignment for any reason by providing 9 written notice to the board within five business days of receiving the 10 assignment notice from the board. A mediator shall reject an 11 assignment if the mediator is aware of any common financial interest 12 between the mediator and the owner or contractor.

(3) The mediator shall disclose in writing within three business days of receiving the assignment notice to the board, the owner, and the contractor any preexisting personal or professional relationships between the mediator and the owner or the contractor. The presence of a preexisting relationship is not a basis for requiring a mediator to reject an assignment.

19 (4) The owner may reject up to one mediator for any reason, by 20 providing written notice to the board of the rejection within five 21 business days of receiving the assignment notice from the board.

(5) The contractor may reject up to one mediator for any reason, by providing written notice to the board of the rejection within five business days of receiving the assignment notice from the board.

(6) If a mediator assignment is rejected for any reason, the board shall assign the next mediator in the manner provided for under this section.

(7) After the mediator is assigned to a complaint, regardless of whether the mediator rejects or is rejected from further investigation of the complaint, the mediator's name must be added at the bottom of the list of approved mediators and must be available for assignment to future cases as the mediator's name advances on the list.

33 NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. If an owner files a complaint with the board 34 against any contractor to assert a claim arising out of or related to 35 the construction, alteration, or repair of a residence located in this state and the owner has not followed the procedure set forth in this chapter, the board shall dismiss the complaint without prejudice.

3 NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. A complaint filed under section 11 of this 4 act must arise from the performance, or a contract for the performance, 5 of work that requires a contractor registered under chapter 18.27 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The board must receive the complaint no 6 7 later than six years after the substantial completion of construction as defined in RCW 4.16.310. If a complaint is filed with the board 8 within the applicable statute of limitations, the filing of the 9 complaint tolls the statute of limitations for the period of time until 10 11 the board issues a decision under section 11 of this act. If a complaint is filed with the board within the time limitations contained 12 in a written express warranty, the filing of the complaint tolls the 13 14 timeline for filing claims under the written express warranty for the 15 period of time until the board provides final notice to the homeowner and contractor under section 12 of this act. 16

17 NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) Prior to commencing any construction 18 action with a court relating to the quality of construction of a 19 residence or filing a claim under a written express warranty complying 20 with section 19 of this act, an owner must submit a complaint to the 21 board.

(2) The owner must file the complaint with the board in a form andmanner prescribed by the board.

(3) The board shall suspend processing of the complaint if:

(a) The board determines that the nature or complexity of the dispute described in the complaint is such that a court is the appropriate forum for the adjudication of the dispute; or

(b) The board determines that the contractor is not registeredunder chapter 18.27 RCW.

30 (4) The board may dismiss or close the complaint if any of the 31 following conditions apply:

(a) The owner does not respond to a mediator request and the request is necessary to the mediator's investigation of the complaint;
(b) The owner does not allow the mediator to conduct one or more

35 on-site meetings to mediate or investigate the complaint;

1 (c) The owner does not permit the contractor against whom the 2 complaint is filed to be present at an on-site investigation made by 3 the mediator; or

(d) The mediator determines that the contractor against whom the complaint is filed is capable of complying with recommendations made by the mediator relative to the complaint, but the owner does not permit the contractor to comply with the recommendations.

8 (5) Upon acceptance of the complaint, the board shall assign a 9 mediator to the complaint in the form and manner prescribed under 10 section 7 of this act.

11 (6) The mediator shall initiate proceedings to determine the 12 validity of the complaint.

13 (7) At a minimum, the mediator shall conduct one or more on-site 14 meetings to mediate or investigate the complaint.

(8) All proceedings of the mediation, including any statement made 15 by any party or other participant, must be privileged and not reported, 16 17 recorded, or placed in evidence, used for any impeachment, made known 18 to a court or jury, or construed for any purposes as an admission. Α party is not bound by anything done or said at the mediation unless 19 20 settlement is reached, in which event the agreement upon a settlement must be reduced to writing and is binding upon all parties to that 21 22 agreement.

(9) If the mediator is unable to resolve the complaint under this section, the mediator shall issue a written notice to the board, which must be forwarded by the board to the owner and contractor. Unless a homeowner or contractor requests an advisory decision from the board, notice of the mediator's decision is considered a final notice.

(10) If the mediator is able to resolve the complaint, the mediator shall deliver the written and signed settlement to the board. The board shall forward the written and signed settlement to the owner and contractor. The written and signed settlement is considered a final notice.

33 (11) A mediated resolution of a residential construction complaint 34 resulting in a written and signed settlement may be enforced in any 35 superior court with jurisdiction.

(12) If a residential construction board complaint is not resolved by mediation or agreement of the owner and contractor, the complaint may be brought to the board for an advisory decision. The complaint must be presented to the board in a form and manner prescribed by the 1 2 board. The board, upon hearing the complaint, shall issue an advisory decision intended to assist the parties in their further negotiation of 3 the complaint and attempt to reach settlement. This advisory decision 4 is considered a final notice. Proceedings before the board, including 5 any statement made by any party or other participant, must be 6 7 privileged and not reported, recorded, or placed in evidence, used for any impeachment, made known to a court or jury, or construed for any 8 purposes as an admission. A party is not bound by anything done or 9 said at the board proceeding. 10

11 NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 12 7.06 RCW, any other provision of law, or any contractual provision, 13 failure of a contractor to initiate mediation proceedings within thirty 14 days after notification by the board of a complaint under section 11 of 15 this act is a waiver by the contractor of any contractual right to 16 mediation or arbitration.

17 NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. (1) Within twenty days after final notice 18 of the board's decision, the owner or the contractor may reject the 19 decision by delivering written notice of the rejection to the board. 20 The board shall forward written notice of the rejection to the owner 21 and the contractor within five days of receiving the rejection of the 22 decision.

(2) Upon receipt of written notice of rejection of the board's 23 decision, an owner pursuing a claim under an implied warranty of 24 25 habitability may file with the clerk of a superior court with jurisdiction a written notice of request for a trial de novo on all 26 issues of law and fact. The trial de novo must be held, including a 27 right to jury, if demanded. Any owner pursuing a claim under an 28 express written warranty may file the claim in the form and manner 29 30 prescribed by the warranty contract.

31 Sec. 14. RCW 18.27.075 and 2001 c 159 s 14 are each amended to 32 read as follows:

33 (1) The department shall charge a fee of one hundred dollars for 34 issuing or renewing a certificate of registration during the 2001-2003 biennium. The department shall revise this amount at least once every two years for the purpose of recognizing economic changes as reflected by the fiscal growth factor under chapter 43.135 RCW.

(2) The department shall also charge a consumer education fee of 4 one hundred dollars per year for issuing or renewing a certificate of 5 registration_to_a_contractor_who_discloses, as required_under_RCW 6 18.27.030, that he or she will perform both residential and commercial 7 work or only residential work. A contractor who discloses that he or 8 she will perform only commercial work is not required to pay the fee. 9 The department shall deposit the fee in the consumer education for home 10 construction account created in section 15 of this act. 11

12 NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. A new section is added to chapter 43.10 RCW 13 to read as follows:

The consumer education for home construction account is created in 14 the custody of the state treasurer for the purpose of funding the 15 16 consumer education office created under section 5 of this act. All 17 fees charged under RCW 18.27.075(2) must be deposited into the account. Expenditures from the account may be used only to fund the office of 18 consumer education for home construction. Only the residential 19 20 construction board created under section 4 of this act or the board's 21 designee may authorize expenditures from the account. The account is 22 subject to the allotment procedures under chapter 43.88 RCW, but an 23 appropriation is not required for expenditures.

 RCW 43.79A.040 and 2008 c 208 s 9, 2008 c 128 s 20, and 25

 2008 c 122 s 24 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) Money in the treasurer's trust fund may be deposited, invested, and reinvested by the state treasurer in accordance with RCW 43.84.080 in the same manner and to the same extent as if the money were in the state treasury.

30 (2) All income received from investment of the treasurer's trust
 31 fund shall be set aside in an account in the treasury trust fund to be 32 known as the investment income account.

33 (3) The investment income account may be utilized for the payment 34 of purchased banking services on behalf of treasurer's trust funds 35 including, but not limited to, depository, safekeeping, and 36 disbursement functions for the state treasurer or affected state agencies. The investment income account is subject in all respects to chapter 43.88 RCW, but no appropriation is required for payments to financial institutions. Payments shall occur prior to distribution of earnings set forth in subsection (4) of this section.

5 (4)(a) Monthly, the state treasurer shall distribute the earnings 6 credited to the investment income account to the state general fund 7 except under (b) and (c) of this subsection.

The following accounts and funds shall receive their 8 (b) proportionate share of earnings based upon each account's or fund's 9 average daily balance for the period: The Washington promise 10 scholarship account, the college savings program account, the 11 Washington advanced college tuition payment program account, the 12 13 agricultural local fund, the American Indian scholarship endowment 14 fund, the foster care scholarship endowment fund, the foster care endowed scholarship trust fund, the students with dependents grant 15 account, the basic health plan self-insurance reserve account, the 16 17 contract harvesting revolving account, the Washington state combined fund drive account, the commemorative works account, the Washington 18 international exchange scholarship endowment fund, the toll collection 19 account, the developmental disabilities endowment trust fund, the 20 21 energy account, the fair fund, the family leave insurance account, the 22 food animal veterinarian conditional scholarship account, the fruit and vegetable inspection account, the future teachers conditional 23 24 scholarship account, the game farm alternative account, the GET ready 25 for math and science scholarship account, the grain inspection revolving fund, the juvenile accountability incentive account, the law 26 27 enforcement officers' and firefighters' plan 2 expense fund, the local tourism promotion account, the pilotage account, the produce railcar 28 pool account, the regional transportation investment district account, 29 the rural rehabilitation account, the stadium and exhibition center 30 31 account, the youth athletic facility account, the self-insurance 32 revolving fund, the sulfur dioxide abatement account, the children's trust fund, the Washington horse racing commission Washington bred 33 owners' bonus fund account, the Washington horse racing commission 34 class C purse fund account, the individual development account program 35 account, the Washington horse racing commission operating account 36 37 (earnings from the Washington horse racing commission operating account 38 must be credited to the Washington horse racing commission class C purse fund account), the life sciences discovery fund, the Washington state heritage center account, the consumer education for home construction account, and the reading achievement account. However, the earnings to be distributed shall first be reduced by the allocation to the state treasurer's service fund pursuant to RCW 43.08.190.

(c) The following accounts and funds shall receive eighty percent 6 7 of their proportionate share of earnings based upon each account's or fund's average daily balance for the period: The advanced right-of-way 8 9 revolving fund, the advanced environmental mitigation revolving account, the city and county advance right-of-way revolving fund, the 10 federal narcotics asset forfeitures account, the high occupancy vehicle 11 account, the local rail service assistance account, and the 12 miscellaneous transportation programs account. 13

14 (5) In conformance with Article II, section 37 of the state
15 Constitution, no trust accounts or funds shall be allocated earnings 16 without the specific affirmative directive of this section.

Sec. 17. RCW 43.79A.040 and 2008 c 239 s 9, 2008 c 208 s 9, 2008 c 128 s 20, and 2008 c 122 s 24 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) Money in the treasurer's trust fund may be deposited, invested, and reinvested by the state treasurer in accordance with RCW 43.84.080
in the same manner and to the same extent as if the money were in the state treasury.

(2) All income received from investment of the treasurer's trust fund shall be set aside in an account in the treasury trust fund to be known as the investment income account.

(3) The investment income account may be utilized for the payment 27 of purchased banking services on behalf of treasurer's trust funds 28 29 including, but not limited to, depository, safekeeping, and 30 disbursement functions for the state treasurer or affected state 31 agencies. The investment income account is subject in all respects to chapter 43.88 RCW, but no appropriation is required for payments to 32 financial institutions. PART III. WARRANTIES

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) or (3) of this section, the implied warranty of habitability may not be contractually disclaimed, waived, modified, or limited. The implied warranty of habitability transfers from the homeowner to subsequent purchasers. Subsequent purchasers of a residence may bring an action for breach of implied warranty of habitability.

19 (2) The implied warranty of habitability may be disclaimed or 20 waived if the contractor or seller provides to the homeowner a 21 transferable written express warranty at the time of closing that has 22 been accepted by the United States department of housing and urban 23 development under 24 CFR Sec. 203.202 through 202.209, as now or 24 hereafter amended.

(3) The implied warranty of habitability may be disclaimed or limited, provided that the contractor can disclaim or limit implied warranty coverage only for failures or deficiencies of specifically listed materials or design features of the construction that were selected or specified by the owner.

30 (4) A disclaimer, waiver, modification, or limitation of an implied 31 warranty of habitability under subsection (2) or (3) of this section 32 must be:

- 33 (a) Written;
- 34 (b) Conspicuous;
- 35 (c) Typed or printed in ten-point bold face type; and
- 36 (d) Signed by the homeowner.

(5) A contractor must provide notice of the warranty that will be 1 2 provided to the owner. The notice must contain a list of the potential legal remedies for an owner dissatisfied with the construction of the 3 home including, but not limited to, breach of contract, fraud, breach 4 5 of express or implied warranties, and violation of chapter 19.86 RCW. The contractor is only required to provide notice to an owner if there 6 7 is privity of contract between the owner and the contractor. This 8 notice must be:

9 (a) Written;

10 (b) Provided five days prior to closing or five days prior to 11 entering into a contract for construction of a new home or construction 12 of a substantial remodel; and

13 (c) Signed by both the contractor and the owner at or prior to 14 closing or entering into the contract for construction of a new home or 15 construction of a substantial remodel.

16 (6) Damages awarded for a breach of the implied warranty of 17 habitability are the cost of repairs. However, if it is established 18 that the cost of repairs is clearly disproportionate to the loss in 19 market value caused by the breach, damages are limited to the loss in 20 market value.

(7) This section does not apply to condominium units created underchapter 64.32 or 64.34 RCW.
