SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL 1025

State of Washington 61st Legislature 2009 Regular Session

By House Education Appropriations (originally sponsored by

READ FIRST TIME 03/02/09.

1 AN ACT Relating to cost savings on course materials; and amending

6 (1) The boards of regents of the state universities, the boards of 7 trustees of the regional universities and The Evergreen State College,
8 and the boards of trustees of each community and technical college 9 district, in collaboration with affiliated bookstores and student and 10 faculty representatives, shall adopt rules requiring that:

11 (a) Affiliated bookstores:

12 (i) Provide students the option of purchasing materials that are 13 unbundled when possible, disclose to faculty and staff the costs to 14 students of purchasing materials, and disclose publicly how new 15 editions vary from previous editions;

16 (ii) Actively promote and publicize book buy-back programs; (~~and~~)

17 (iii) Disclose retail costs for course materials on a per course

2 including but not limited to title, authors, edition, price, and 3 International Standard Book Number (ISBN) at least four weeks before
4 the start of the class for which the materials are required. The chief 5 academic officer may waive the disclosure requirement provided in this

9 which the materials are required. The requirement provided in this 10 subsection (1)(a)(iv) does not apply if the faculty member using the 11 course materials is hired four weeks or less before the start of class; 12 and

13 (b) Faculty and staff members consider the least costly practices
14 in assigning course materials, such as adopting the least expensive 15 edition available, adopting free, open textbooks when available, and 16 working with college librarians to put together collections of free 17 online web and library resources, when educational content is 18 comparable as determined by the faculty (~~(and working closely with~~ 19 ~~publishers and local bookstores to create bundles and packages if they~~ 20 ~~deliver cost savings to students)~~).
