1601-S AMH ORCU CORD 022

SHB 1601 - H AMD 295

By Representative Orcutt

NOT CONSIDERED 04/22/2011

On page 2, line 17, after "By" insert "reviewing and recommending 1 2 innovative strategies that are intended to improve the state's 3 economic climate and by" 4 5 On page 4, line 24, after "plans." insert "In developing 6 strategies, the college board must study the effects of placing a 7 moratorium on rule-making as proposed in House Bill 1156 in 2011 and 8 include an analysis of how the policies proposed in the bill would 9 assist in increasing the percentage of Washington households living 10 in the middle-income bracket." 11 12 5, line 2, after "plans." insert "In developing 13 strategies, the superintendent of public instruction must study the 14 effects of placing a moratorium on rule-making as proposed in House 15 Bill 1156 in 2011 and include an analysis of how the policies 16 proposed in the bill would assist in increasing the percentage of 17 Washington households living in the middle-income bracket."

18

On page 5, line 25, after "plans." insert "In developing strategies, the department must study the effects of placing a moratorium on rule-making as proposed in House Bill 1156 in 2011 and include an analysis of how the policies proposed in the bill would assist in increasing the percentage of Washington households living in the middle-income bracket."

25

On page 6, line 6, after "plans." insert "In developing strategies, the commissioner must study the effects of placing a

1 moratorium on rule-making as proposed in House Bill 1156 in 2011 and

- 2 include an analysis of how the policies proposed in the bill would
- 3 assist in increasing the percentage of Washington households living
- 4 in the middle-income bracket."

5

6 On page 6, line 22, after "plans." insert "In developing

7 strategies, the secretary must study the effects of placing a

- 8 moratorium on rule-making as proposed in House Bill 1156 in 2011 and
- 9 include an analysis of how the policies proposed in the bill would
- 10 assist in increasing the percentage of Washington households living
- 11 in the middle-income bracket."

12

- On page 7, line 3, after "(1)" insert "The department must study
- 14 the effects of placing a moratorium on rule-making as proposed in
- 15 House Bill 1156 in 2011 and include an analysis of how the policies
- 16 proposed in the bill would assist in increasing the percentage of
- 17 Washington households living in the middle-income bracket. The
- 18 department shall submit this information to the workforce training
- 19 and education coordinating board and the office of financial
- 20 management at the initial update of its agency planning documents.
- 21 (2)"

22

- On page 7, at the beginning of line 21, strike "(2)" and insert
- 24 "(3)"

25

- 26 On page 7, line 33, after "plans." insert "In developing
- 27 strategies, the director must study the effects of placing a
- 28 moratorium on rule-making as proposed in House Bill 1156 in 2011 and
- 29 include an analysis of how the policies proposed in the bill assist
- 30 in increasing the percentage of Washington households living in the
- 31 middle-income bracket."

32

33

34

On page 8, line 6, after "(1)" insert "The department must 2 analyze the effects of placing a moratorium on rule-making as 3 proposed in House Bill 1156 in 2011 and include an analysis of how 4 the policies included in the bill would assist in increasing the 5 percentage of Washington households living in the middle-income 6 bracket.

7 (2)"

8

9 On page 8, at the beginning of line 18, strike "(2)" and insert 10 "(3)"

EFFECT: Adds (1) intent to develop strategies that improve the state's economic climate, and (2) a requirement for the departments of Commerce, Social and Health Services, Revenue, Personnel, the Employment Security Department, the Washington State Apprenticeship and Training Council, the State Board for Technical and Community Colleges, and the Superintendent of Public Instruction to analyze the effects of placing a moratorium on rule-making and how this policy change would increase the percentage of Washington households living in the middle-income bracket.

--- END ---