

SB 5437 - DIGEST

Provides that if a member of the fish and wildlife commission is not confirmed by the senate by the end of the second full regular legislative session following the member's initial appointment, that member's position is considered vacated.