1 On page 3, line 30, after "program." insert "An assisted living
2 facility that fails to give the notice required under this subsection
3 and charges residents privately for the provision of continuing nursing
4 or rehabilitative services and such services were otherwise eligible
5 for medicare, veterans' benefits, long-term care insurance, or other 6 third-party coverage, commits an act that constitutes financial 7 exploitation under chapter 74.34 RCW."

8 On page 10, beginning on line 17, strike all of section 8

9 Correct the title.

EFFECT: Recategorizes the act of an assisted living facility charging a resident for continuing nursing services without providing notice that the resident may be eligible for other coverage for nursing and rehabilitative therapy services, from being a consumer protection act violation to an act of financial exploitation.
