

HB 1026 - DIGEST

Requires specifications for public works contracts to contain a provision requiring that at least seventy-five percent of the labor hours be performed by Washington residents.