

SB 5311 - DIGEST

Removes the requirement that housing organizations apply to the Washington state quality award program for an independent assessment of its quality management, accountability, and performance system.